I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Mary Louis and Monica Douglas (collectively "Plaintiffs") submit this Memorandum in Support of Their Unopposed Motion to Certify the Classes for Settlement Purposes and Direct Notice of Settlement to the Classes. The proposed Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release ("Agreement"), attached as Exhibit 1, will resolve the instant action against SafeRent Solutions, LLC ("SafeRent" or "Defendant").[1] The Agreement is the result of arm's-length, informed, and non-collusive negotiations between experienced and knowledgeable counsel who have actively prosecuted and defended this litigation. The settlement negotiations were facilitated by an experienced mediator, the Honorable Diane M. Welsh (Ret.), a former federal Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania who has a nationwide reputation for her settlement mediation abilities. Judge Welsh has submitted a declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion, which is attached as Exhibit 2.

The Settlement achieved by the Parties is fair, reasonable, and provides substantial benefits to the entire Settlement Classes[2] now, while avoiding the delay, risk, and expense inherent in the continued litigation of this action. As detailed below, SafeRent has agreed to significant changes to its business practices equivalent to the injunctive relief Plaintiffs sought by filing this action. The Parties have also agreed that SafeRent will establish a Settlement Fund in the amount of $1,175,000 in monetary relief that will be distributed to Settlement Class Members and used to pay settlement administration costs and service payments, if awarded by the Court, to the two proposed Class Representatives up to $10,000 each, or $20,000 total, for their work and time expended on this case. The proposed Settlement Agreement permits Plaintiffs to apply for a separate award of attorneys' fees and costs up to $1,100,000, with any unawarded funds to be added to the Settlement Fund. Plaintiffs have filed a Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards ("Attorneys' Fees Motion") concurrently with this Motion.

[1] SafeRent has agreed to a separately negotiated settlement with organizational plaintiff Community Action Agency of Somerville, Inc. ("CAAS") to settle CAAS's non-class claims on an individual basis. The CAAS settlement will only become final if the class settlement is approved. The payment to CAAS does not come from the Settlement Fund, and no portion of the payment to CAAS will be paid to Settlement Class Counsel. Nor will CAAS's attorneys' fees be paid from the fee award in the proposed class settlement. Plaintiff Monica Douglas is separately negotiating a possible settlement of her individual claim with Defendant Metropolitan Management Group, LLC.

Additionally, the Notice that Plaintiffs propose be distributed to the Settlement Classes, attached as Exhibit 3, and the schedule for issuance of notice and the fairness hearing, as set forth in the Proposed Order Certifying the Classes for Settlement Purposes and Directing Notice of Settlement to the Classes ("Preliminary Approval Order"), attached as Exhibit 4, will allow an adequate opportunity for the Settlement Classes to review and respond to the proposed Settlement and are consistent with the Parties' desire for prompt implementation of the terms of the proposed Settlement. Plaintiffs also propose that the Court appoint Epiq to be the Settlement Administrator, given Epiq's extensive experience in administering settlements and after reviewing competitive bids from three class settlement administration companies. See Epiq Declaration, attached as Exhibit 5.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant their Motion and enter the Preliminary Approval Order submitted herewith that would:

- Provisionally certify the Settlement Classes pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) for settlement purposes only;
- Appoint Plaintiffs Mary Louis and Monica Douglas as Settlement Class Representatives, and appoint Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, Greater Boston Legal Services, and the National Consumer Law Center as Settlement Class Counsel;
- Appoint Epiq as Settlement Administrator;
- Approve the Notice, including SafeRent's provision to the Settlement Administrator of the identifying information for Settlement Class Members available in SafeRent's databases, and direct that the Notice be disseminated to the Settlement Classes by Settlement Administrator Epiq;
- Set a date ninety days from the date Notice is disseminated as the deadline for submission of any objections to the proposed Settlement; and
- Schedule a fairness hearing on or after November 18, 2024, which is ninety days after the anticipated deadline for Class Members to object to the proposed Settlement Agreement.

II. HISTORY OF THE LITIGATION

On May 25, 2022, Plaintiffs filed this putative class action against Defendant SafeRent, challenging its proprietary "SafeRent Score" product, a tenant-screening service sold by Defendant and purchased by rental housing providers to make leasing decisions. Plaintiffs filed their operative Amended Complaint on August 26, 2022. Doc. No. 15. The Amended Complaint alleges that the SafeRent Score is calculated using a formula that results in the disproportionate denial of rental housing for rental housing applicants who use housing choice vouchers, with a further disparate impact on Black and Hispanic applicants who use vouchers, because the formula relies heavily on non-tenancy debt, which Plaintiffs allege is not predictive of the ability to pay rent. Doc. No. 15 ¶¶ 1–10, 45–61. Plaintiffs further allege that this disparate impact cannot be justified by any business necessity because a tenant's housing voucher uniquely protects the housing provider's receipt of monthly rent. Doc. No. 15 ¶¶ 62–73. On behalf of the putative classes, Plaintiffs brought disparate impact fair housing claims against SafeRent under the Fair Housing Act ("FHA"), 42 U.S.C. § 3604 et seq. and Massachusetts General Laws ch. 151B §§ 4(6), 4(10) ("Massachusetts Discrimination Law"), and claims of unfair and deceptive business practices under Massachusetts General Laws ch. 93A § 9. Doc. No. 15 ¶¶ 120–126, 134–141, 150–157, 165–183.

SafeRent filed a motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint on October 27, 2022, arguing, among other things, that the prohibition on disparate impact discrimination in housing under the FHA and the Massachusetts Discrimination Law does not extend to tenant screening companies such as SafeRent. See Doc. No. 32. On July 26, 2023, the Court denied SafeRent's motion to dismiss the housing discrimination claims, finding Plaintiffs had sufficiently alleged that the SafeRent Score "has a disproportionate impact on Black and Hispanic applicants and voucher holders," directly resulting "in a disproportionate rate of housing denials for these protected groups." Louis v. SafeRent Sols. LLC, No. 22-CV-10800, 2023 WL 4766192, at *12 (July 26, 2023). The Court granted SafeRent's motion to dismiss with respect to Plaintiffs' unfair and deceptive business practices claim under G.L. Ch. 93A. See id. at *15.

Plaintiffs began to prepare for discovery. However, before embarking on a costly and lengthy discovery process, the Parties agreed to explore settlement. They identified a highly skilled and reputable mediator, the Honorable Diane M. Welsh (Ret.), and promptly scheduled a mediation session, which took place on November 6, 2023. In advance of the mediation, the Parties exchanged detailed mediation statements, setting forth the strengths and weaknesses of their respective positions and, after the Court entered a Protective Order (Doc. No. 96) on October 26, 2023, SafeRent provided a set of confidential, attorneys-eyes-only documents in response to Plaintiffs' pre-mediation discovery requests. This information included documents relating to the named Plaintiffs' applications for housing and SafeRent's analysis of those applications, information explaining the function of each of the different tenant-screening models SafeRent sells to Massachusetts housing providers, including its "Affordable Model," "Market Model," and "No-Credit Model," and other information about the SafeRent Score and how it is calculated.

On November 6, 2023, the Parties had a productive mediation session during which SafeRent agreed in principle to significant injunctive relief, though it took considerable time after the mediation to reach an agreement setting forth the exact parameters of such changes in writing. Following the mediation, SafeRent provided pertinent information and documents on a confidential, attorneys-eyes-only basis, so that the Parties could come to an agreement on a fair monetary settlement amount. With the assistance of Judge Welsh, the Parties continued to engage in comprehensive settlement discussions, and on December 22, 2023, executed a Memorandum of Settlement, resulting in an agreement to resolve the case as set forth in the proposed Settlement.

III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

Plaintiffs brought this action to ensure that individuals who use housing vouchers are not denied housing based on their SafeRent Score—a product Plaintiffs allege has not been proven to effectively and fairly screen tenants who pay most, or all, of their rent with housing vouchers. This lawsuit also was filed to secure compensation for Plaintiffs and putative Class Members who were unfairly denied housing based on their SafeRent Score. The relief afforded by the proposed Settlement achieves both of these goals. A description of the key provisions follows.

A. The Settlement Classes

The proposed Settlement seeks relief for the following two Settlement Classes:

> All rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class");
> All Black and Hispanic rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class").

Ex. 1 §§ 1.17, 1.18.

B. Injunctive Relief Provided by the Proposed Settlement

The proposed Settlement achieves substantial injunctive relief that requires SafeRent to comply with a number of practice changes. For a period of five years, SafeRent will stop providing a "SafeRent Score" to housing providers that are processing applications of prospective tenants who hold housing vouchers. See Ex. 1 § 3.5. These practice changes are of the kind and scope that Plaintiffs sought by filing this litigation and will provide significant benefit to voucher-holders applying for housing in Massachusetts.

SafeRent will implement these business practice changes by doing the following, which will be fully effective no later than twelve months from the date the Agreement was executed. See Ex. 1 § 3.5.1. First, SafeRent will cease including a SafeRent Score or an accept/decline recommendation based on a tenant screening score in any of its score reports generated for housing providers who subscribe to or purchase SafeRent's "Affordable Model," the SafeRent Score model many housing providers use when submitting information for applicants using vouchers. Ex. 1 § 3.5.2. SafeRent will also be barred from including any other tenant screening score (either from a third party or its own revised model) in its Affordable Model score reports, unless that tenant screening score has been validated for its use for applicants with housing vouchers by the National Fair Housing Alliance or any similar organization agreed to by the Parties. Ex. 1 § 3.5.5(ii)(1). To ensure housing providers have some information about housing voucher applicants to make an informed decision on an application, SafeRent will still provide a report containing the underlying applicant information. Ex. 1 § 3.5.2.

Second, under the proposed Settlement, SafeRent will require housing providers who subscribe to or purchase the "Market Model" or "No-Credit Model"—SafeRent's two other types of tenant-screening scoring models—to affirmatively certify that the rental applicant for whom they are requesting a SafeRent Score is not currently a recipient of any publicly-funded federal or state housing voucher. Ex. 1 § 3.5.3 . If the housing provider does not make this certification, SafeRent, as with the Affordable Model, will provide a report with the underlying applicant information but will not include a SafeRent Score or accept/decline recommendation based on a tenant screening score. Ex. 1 § 3.5.3. As with the terms applicable to the Affordable Model customers, SafeRent will not be allowed to provide non-certifying "Market Model" and "No-Credit Model" customers with any other tenant screening score unless that score has been independently validated. Ex. 1 § 3.5.5(ii)(1) .

Third, the proposed Settlement requires SafeRent to provide training or instruction to housing providers explaining the differences between the Market Model, No-Credit Model, and Affordable Model, and explaining the changes to the SafeRent products and services that are encompassed in the proposed Settlement. Ex. 1 § 3.5.4. This training and instruction will inform and explain to housing providers why they will not receive a SafeRent Score when processing rental application for housing voucher recipients to avoid confusion.

C. Monetary Relief Provided by the Proposed Settlement

The proposed Settlement provides meaningful monetary relief to members of the Settlement Classes. Under the terms of the Agreement, SafeRent will pay a sum of $1,175,000 into a Settlement Fund within thirty days of the Effective Date. Ex. 1 §§ 1.40, 3.2.1. The Settlement Fund will be used to make payments to members of the Settlement Classes who submit valid claims and to Settlement Administrator Epiq for costs associated with notice and administration. Ex. 1 §

3.2.2 .[3] The proposed Class Representatives may also apply to the Court for service awards of no more than $10,000 each, or $20,000 total, payable from the Settlement Fund. Ex. 1 § 3.3. In the event the Settlement Fund is not fully exhausted, the remaining amount will be distributed in a manner agreed upon by the Parties, subject to Court approval. Ex. 1 §§ 3.2.2, 4.7.3. No portion of the Settlement Fund will revert to SafeRent. Ex. 1 § 4.7.3.

D. Notice and Claims Process

Payments to members of the Settlement Classes will be distributed to individuals who submit a valid and timely Claim Form, as defined by the terms of the proposed Settlement.[4] See Ex. 1 § 4.3. SafeRent will first provide to the Settlement Administrator a list of the more than 18,000 individuals who applied for rental housing in Massachusetts during the relevant period and received a SafeRent Score below the score required for an "accept" recommendation, as well as their Social Security numbers and last known addresses, emails, and telephone numbers, if reasonably available to SafeRent. Ex. 1 § 4.2.1. As discussed in Section IV.A.i. below, SafeRent does not know which of these individuals who will receive notice had a housing voucher at the time they received a SafeRent Score, or the race of the individuals. The Parties believe that by sending notice to all individuals for whom SafeRent generated a "decline" or "accept with conditions" SafeRent Score report, notice will be sent to all Settlement Class Members, in addition to several thousand non-class members.

No later than thirty days after SafeRent provides the Settlement Administrator with the list of potential Settlement Class Members and the identifying information in SafeRent's databases, the Settlement Administrator will provide Notice by the following methods. Ex. 1 § 4.2. First, using the identification information provided by SafeRent, the Settlement Administrator will obtain the best available contact information for the potential Settlement Class Members. Ex. 1 § 4.2.1. Subject to Court approval, the Settlement Administrator will send hardcopy Notices and/or email Notices and/or text messages with links to the Settlement Website[5] to those individuals for whom SafeRent has provided information. Ex. 1 § 4.2.1. The Settlement Administrator will search for updated contact information as needed, including searching for updated contact information based on mailings or emails returned as undeliverable. Ex. 1 § 4.2.1. The Settlement Administrator will mail and/or email the Claim Form to those individuals who are sent notice, with pre-paid return postage and an envelope to submit a hardcopy Claim Form or, for email notice, a link to the Settlement Website. Ex. 1 § 4.3.1. The Claim Form will be available on the Settlement Website and the Settlement Administrator will ensure that the Claim Form can be filled out and signed electronically. Ex. 1 § 4.3.1.

[3] The proposal from Epiq states that the projected costs of the notice and claims process will be between $110,000 and $135,000. See Ex. 5 § 34.

[4] Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed that, to help ensure that payments from this settlement do not disrupt Class Members' eligibility for public benefits, Settlement Class Members may indicate on the Claim Form whether they wish to receive their settlement payment in a single lump-sum payment or spread in equal parts across two years. Ex. 1 § 4.7.1.1.

To submit a claim, Settlement Class Members must complete and sign the Claim Form (either by physical or electronic signature or by affirmation) and submit the Claim Form no later than ninety days after the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice. Ex. 1 § 4.3.2. The Claim Form will require Settlement Class Members to provide their name and contact information and either: (a) documentation sufficient to show that the individual held a housing voucher during the Relevant Period, or (b) a statement signed under penalty of perjury attesting that the individual held a voucher during the Relevant Period. Ex. 1 § 1.5. If no documentation is provided, the Class Member will identify, if possible, the Public Housing Authority ("PHA") that approved and/or issued the voucher and will provide informed consent to allow the Settlement Administrator to verify the claimant's voucher status by contacting the relevant PHA, Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), and/or the Massachusetts Executive Office of Housing and Livable Communities ("EOHLC"). Ex. 1 § 1.5. The Claim Form will contain language informing Settlement Class Members that, by submitting a Claim Form without documentation, the [5] The Settlement Administrator will establish a Settlement Website that will contain a downloadable Notice and downloadable Claim Form, contact information, and relevant case documents. Ex. 1 § 4.2.2.

Settlement Class Member is allowing the PHA, HUD, and/or the EOHLC to provide the Settlement Administrator with information about the Settlement Class Member's voucher status and allowing the Settlement Administrator to finally determine whether the Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive a share of the Settlement Fund based on the information, if any, provided by the PHA, HUD, and/or EOHLC. To qualify as a member of the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class, the claimant will be required to declare on the Claim Form under penalty of perjury that the claimant identifies as Black or Hispanic. Ex. 1 § 1.5. The Settlement Administrator will be responsible for reviewing and determining the validity of Claim Forms, including providing a "cure" process. Ex. 1 § 4.3.4.

The Notice will inform Settlement Class Members that they may exclude themselves from the Settlement by mailing a written request to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than ninety days after the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice. Ex. 1 § 4.4. The Notice will also inform Settlement Class Members that, if they do not request exclusion, they have the right to object to the proposed Settlement by filing or sending a written objection to the Court, postmarked or filed no later than ninety days after the Notice is first disseminated. Ex. 1 § 4.6.

Settlement Class Members who submit valid and timely Claim Forms will receive pro rata payments from the Settlement Fund. Ex. 1 § 4.7.1. Members of the Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class only or the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class only will receive a 1X share of the Settlement Fund, and members of both Classes will receive a 1.5X share. Ex. 1 § 4.7.1.1. Settlement Class Members may indicate on the Claim Form whether they wish to receive their settlement payment in a single lump-sum payment or spread in equal parts across two years. Ex. 1 § 4.7.1.1.[6]

E. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

The proposed Settlement permits Plaintiffs to apply for an award of attorneys' fees and costs, not to exceed $1,100,000. Ex. 1 § 3.4.1. This settlement term was negotiated after the relief was substantially agreed upon for Plaintiffs and the Classes and payment will not be made from the Settlement Fund. Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees, filed separately, details Plaintiffs' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this action, which total more than the $1,100,000 cap on Plaintiffs' petition. The proposed Settlement contemplates that SafeRent will pay any awarded attorneys' fees and costs within seven days of the later of the Effective Date or the receipt by SafeRent of requested tax forms and/or payment information. Ex. 1 § 3.4.4. The Settlement is not conditioned on the Court's approval of Plaintiffs' attorneys' fees request, and if the Court does not award the full amount of fees and costs, any money remaining from the $1,100,000 will be added to the amount paid to the Settlement Fund. Ex. 1 § 3.4.5.

[6] The Parties will provide in the Motion for Final Approval a summary of the number of claimants and the amount each will receive from the Settlement Fund.

F. Releases

In consideration for the business practice changes and monetary relief provided to Plaintiffs and the Classes, the proposed Settlement provides SafeRent with releases of claims. The releases are appropriately tailored to the facts and claims Plaintiffs raised in this case by releasing and forever discharging SafeRent from any and all claims arising out of conduct that occurred as of the date of the execution of the Agreement relating to (a) violations of the FHA, Massachusetts Discrimination Law, and Massachusetts Consumer Protection Law alleged in this case; (b) any and all claims asserted in the Litigation, or based on allegations identified in the Complaint or Amended Complaint; and (c) any and all claims made by voucher-holders for discrimination attributable to SafeRent Scores. Ex. 1 §§ 1.28, 3.6. The Named Plaintiffs also separately agree to generally release SafeRent from any claims arising out of or relating to any conduct that occurred as of the date the Agreement was executed. Ex. 1 § 3.6.2.

IV. ARGUMENT

Under Rule 23(e), the claims of a class proposed to be certified for settlement purposes may only be settled with the Court's approval. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). At the preliminary approval stage, this Court must decide whether notice should be provided to the settlement class about the proposed settlement, which this Court "must" do if the Court determines that "the court will likely be able to approve the proposal under Rule 23(e)(2); and certify the class for purposes of judgment on the proposal." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B); see also In re Relafen Antitrust Litig., 231 F.R.D. 52, 57 (D. Mass. 2005) (describing the "two-stage procedure" for approving a settlement class, where preliminary approval is appropriate if the settlement is "sufficient to warrant public notice and a hearing" and, if so, "the final decision on approval is made after the hearing").

As discussed more fully below, the instant settlement satisfies all of these requirements. As such, Plaintiffs' request for certification of the Settlement Classes, the issuance of notice, and the scheduling of a final approval hearing should be granted.

A. The Class Should be Certified for Settlement Purposes.

"To obtain class certification, the plaintiff must establish the Rule 23(a) requirements of numerosity, commonality, typicality, and adequacy of representation and demonstrate that the action may be maintained under Rule 23(b)(1), (2), or (3)." Hochstadt v. Bos. Sci. Corp., 708 F.Supp.2d 95, 102 (D. Mass. 2010) (citing Smilow v. Sw. Bell Mobile Sys., Inc., 323 F.3d 32, 38 (1st Cir. 2003)). The proposed Settlement Classes, as defined in Section III.A above, meet the conditions set forth in Rule 23(a), Rule 23(b)(2), and Rule 23(b)(3).

(i) Plaintiffs Satisfy the Requirements of Rule 23(a).

First, the proposed Settlement Classes are sufficiently large that joinder is impracticable, meeting Rule 23(a)'s numerosity requirement. See New Eng. Carpenters Health Benefits Fund v. First Databank, Inc., No. 05-CV-11148, 2009 WL 10703302, at *2 (D. Mass. Mar. 30, 2009). SafeRent does not maintain data about the race or voucher status of applicants to its customers' rental housing. However, SafeRent's records indicate that between May 25, 2020 and September 27, 2023, more than 18,000 applications for housing in Massachusetts were assigned a SafeRent Score lower than the threshold that a housing provider set to recommend "accept" on an application. After accounting for duplicate applications and based on its own attempt to independently estimate from this population the number of individuals who may have sought to use a publicly-funded housing voucher and who may be Black or Hispanic, SafeRent estimated in October 2023 that the number of putative class members was between 3,300 and 4,200. Thus, there can be no question that Plaintiffs satisfy numerosity.

Second, there are common questions of law and fact at issue, thus meeting the commonality requirement. See Meaden v. HarborOne Bank, No. 23-CV-10467, 2023 WL 3529762, at *2–3 (D. Mass. May 18, 2023) ("The 'threshold for commonality under Rule 23(a)(2) is not high.'" (internal citation omitted)). The gravamen of this lawsuit is that SafeRent, through the SafeRent Score product, has caused the disproportionate denial of housing to tenant applicants who use housing vouchers, allegedly in violation of the FHA and Massachusetts Discrimination Law. This is a common contention for each Settlement Class Member, and it can be satisfied using evidence common to the class. There are additional common questions, such as whether SafeRent could justify the use of its SafeRent Score product under standards for business necessity. The existence of these common questions satisfies the commonality requirement. See First Databank, Inc., 2009 WL 10703302 at *2–3 (granting motion to certify a class for settlement purposes and describing common legal and factual contentions suitable for resolution on a classwide basis).

Third, typicality is satisfied. For this requirement, Plaintiffs need only demonstrate that their "injuries arise from the same events or course of conduct as do the injuries of the class" and that the Plaintiffs' claims and those of the Classes "are based on the same legal theory." In re Credit Suisse-AOL Sec. Litig., 253 F.R.D. 17, 23 (D. Mass. 2008). Here, Plaintiffs' claims arise out of the exact same conduct—SafeRent's use of certain credit and tenant information in its calculation of the SafeRent Score provided to housing providers, which Plaintiffs allege resulted in the disproportionate denial of housing to applicants using vouchers. Because Plaintiffs allege that each member of the Settlement Classes was denied housing pursuant to the same practice by SafeRent, typicality is satisfied.

Fourth, the requirement for fair and adequate representation is satisfied. Named Plaintiffs Mary Louis and Monica Douglas have faithfully participated in this litigation for nearly two years, including maintaining regular contact with their counsel, providing information and documents upon counsel's request, familiarizing themselves with the facts and issues presenting in the case and attending the hearing on Defendants' motion to dismiss. If appointed as representatives of the Settlement Classes, Ms. Louis and Ms. Douglas will continue to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class. See Jean-Pierre v. J&L Cable TV Servs., Inc., 538 F.Supp.3d 208, 212 (D. Mass. 2021) (finding adequacy satisfied where each named plaintiff was involved in the prosecution of his claims and their interests were aligned with the class).

The Settlement Classes are also fairly and adequately represented by competent attorneys with specialized expertise in litigating housing and consumer rights class actions. See Jean-Pierre, 538 F.Supp.3d at 212. Plaintiffs are represented by Greater Boston Legal Services, a Massachusetts nonprofit that regularly provides legal advocacy to low-income renters who use housing vouchers; the National Consumer Law Center, a national nonprofit based in Massachusetts, which, for over 50 years, has worked for economic justice for low-income and other disadvantaged people; and the law firm of Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, one of the leading firms in the country handling major complex plaintiff-side civil rights and fair housing litigation, based in Washington, DC. See Declaration of Christine E. Webber attached as Exhibit 3 to Motion for Attorneys' Fees; Declaration of Todd S. Kaplan, attached as Exhibit 4 to Motion for Attorneys' Fees; Declaration of Shennan Kavanagh, attached as Exhibit 5 to Motion for Attorneys' Fees.

(ii) Plaintiffs Satisfy the Requirements of Rule 23(b)(2).

Plaintiffs also satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(b)(2). A class may be certified under Rule 23(b)(2) if the prerequisites of Rule 23(a) are met and the defendant "has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2). Classes certified under Rule 23(b)(2) "frequently serve as the vehicle for civil rights actions and other institutional reform cases." Hawkins ex rel. Hawkins v. Comm'r of N.H. Dep't of Health & Human Servs., No. 99-143, 2004 WL 166722, at *4 (D.N.H. Jan. 23, 2004). Such is the case here.

As detailed above, Plaintiffs have advanced a common contention in this litigation: that SafeRent, through the SafeRent Score product, has caused the denial of housing to rental applicants who use housing vouchers. Put differently, Plaintiffs allege that SafeRent, by marketing and selling the SafeRent Score product and applying that product to applicants with vouchers, has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Classes. Accordingly, the Settlement Classes should be certified pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2).

In consideration of the foregoing, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court certify the Settlement Classes for purposes of injunctive relief under Rule 23(b)(2) and appoint Plaintiffs Louis and Douglas as Class Representatives and Plaintiffs' Counsel as Class Counsel.

(iii) Plaintiffs Satisfy the Requirements of Rule 23(b)(3).

Finally, Plaintiffs satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(b)(3). Rule 23(b)(3) provides that a class action may be maintained if "the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Plaintiffs satisfy both predominance and superiority.

The "predominance inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant adjudication by representation." Amchem Prods. Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 623 (1997). "This standard can be met if the common issues predominate, even if some individual issues arise in the course of litigation." Meaden, 2023 WL 3529762, at *3 (citations omitted). Plaintiffs allege that all Settlement Class Members are entitled to the same legal remedies premised on SafeRent's same alleged wrongdoing, and the issues affecting every Settlement Class Member are substantially the same. Thus, the Settlement Classes are sufficiently cohesive to satisfy predominance.

Superiority requires a class action to be "superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Here, where there are thousands of potential Settlement Class Members with claims resulting from a common issue, a class action is the most feasible mechanism for resolving the dispute. See In re Relafen, 231 F.R.D. at 70. Moreover, the Settlement Class Members here are individuals using housing vouchers, who, by definition, are people with limited financial means. It is therefore highly likely that the transaction costs in bringing individual lawsuits would be prohibitive. A class action is therefore the superior method for resolving the claims at issue in this litigation.

B. Notice Should Be Issued Because the Proposed Settlement Agreement Is Likely to Be Found Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

Issuance of class notice is appropriate upon a showing that the court will likely be able to approve the proposed settlement under Rule 23(e)(2). See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B). A court may only approve a class settlement after finding that it is "fair, reasonable, and adequate," which requires considering whether: (i) the class representatives and class counsel adequately represented the class; (ii) the proposed settlement was negotiated at arm's length; (iii) the relief provided for the class was adequate; and (iv) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The fairness of the settlement should be considered with an appreciation of the strong judicial policy favoring the resolution of class actions. See, e.g., Nat'l Ass'n of Chain Drug Stores v. New Eng. Carpenters' Health Benefits Fund, 582 F.3d 30, 44 (1st Cir. 2009).

For the reasons described below, the proposed Settlement Agreement is likely to be found fair, reasonable, and adequate, and this Court should therefore direct notice to be issued to the Settlement Classes.

(i) The Settlement Classes Are Adequately Represented by the Proposed Class Representatives and Plaintiffs' Counsel.

Employing a two-step analysis, the Court must initially be satisfied that the settlement class was adequately represented during the litigation and settlement. See In re Pharma. Indus. Avg. Wholesale Price Litig., 588 F.3d 24, 36 n.12 (1st Cir. 2009) ("[T]he duty of adequate representation requires counsel to represent the class competently and vigorously and without conflicts of interest with the class.") (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(4)). First, the Court must determine whether the interests of the class representatives "conflict with the interests of any of the class members." See Andrews v. Bechtel Power Corp., 780 F.2d 124, 130 (1st Cir. 1985). Second, the Court must be satisfied that Plaintiffs' counsel are qualified and experienced and were vigorously pursuing the interests of class before the settlement was reached. Id. As Rule 23(g) requires, the Court must also consider at settlement whether counsel have "experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action; counsel's knowledge of the applicable law" and the resources that counsel committed to the prosecution of the case before settlement was reached. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(A)(i)–(iv); accord Lapan v. Dick's Sporting Goods, Inc., No. 13-CV-11390, 2015 WL 8664204, at *3 (D. Mass. Dec. 11, 2015) (considering the guidance from Rule 23(g) in evaluating the adequacy of counsel).

There is no conflict between the proposed Settlement Class Representatives and absent Settlement Class Members because both groups share an interest in receiving the relief provided by the terms of the proposed Settlement. The proposed Settlement Class Representatives and members of the proposed Settlement Classes are people who (a) use or used publicly-funded housing vouchers during the class period and (b) were denied housing because of their SafeRent Score—all of whom will be able to obtain relief by the terms of the proposed Settlement. Accordingly, the proposed Settlement Class Representatives seek "the same remedy . . . based on an identical theory" as the rest of the class, rendering the interests of the class representatives "coextensive with the class." Reid v. Donelan, 297 F.R.D. 185, 191 (D. Mass. 2014).

Moreover, Plaintiffs have retained experienced and competent counsel who fairly and adequately protected the interests of the proposed classes throughout the litigation and during the negotiation of the proposed Settlement. Plaintiffs' Counsel have substantial experience litigating and negotiating settlements in class actions, including in the areas of housing, civil rights, and consumer rights law. See Section IV.A.i (citing Plaintiffs' Counsel invested substantial time and resources in litigating this case and in negotiating the Agreement. See Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Exs. 3–5 attached thereto. Moreover, Counsel undertook the representation on terms by which their compensation was fully contingent on the outcome and the costs of litigation were advanced. Accordingly, there is ample evidence that undersigned counsel vigorously and fully represented the interests of the class in the litigation leading to its settlement. See Connor B. v. Patrick, 272 F.R.D. 288, 297 (D. Mass. 2011).

(ii) The Proposed Settlement was the Product of Arm's-Length Negotiation.

"A settlement is presumed to be reasonable when it is achieved by arm's length negotiations conducted by experienced counsel." Nat'l Ass'n of Deaf v. MIT, No. 15-CV-30024, 2020 WL 1495903, at *4 (D. Mass. Mar. 27, 2020)). When determining whether an agreement was the product of an arm's-length negotiation, courts often consider the complexity and duration of the litigation, whether meaningful discovery was completed prior to settlement, whether the parties utilized a formal mediation process to negotiate the agreement, and whether the agreement was conditioned on an award of attorneys' fees and costs. See, e.g., Bacchi v. Mass. Mut. Life Ins. Co., No. 12-11280, 2017 WL 5177610, at * 2 (D. Mass. Nov. 8, 2017); Hill v. State St. Corp., No 09-12146, 2015 WL 127728, at *7 (D. Mass. Jan. 8, 2015); Disability Law Ctr. v. Mass. Dep't of Corr., 960 F.Supp.2d 271, 280-81 (D. Mass. 2012).

Plaintiffs researched and investigated this case for nearly a year before filing, collecting a substantial amount of relevant material from public sources, before even filing the lawsuit. See Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Exs. 3–5 attached thereto The Parties then litigated this case for over a year, including briefing and arguing SafeRent's motion to dismiss. And while formal discovery was not conducted, Plaintiffs requested and received documents and information both before and after the formal mediation session before Judge Welsh, allowing Plaintiffs to better understand the Parties' strengths and weaknesses in the case, and the potential damages the class could recover if litigation were successful.

After settlement negotiations that extended over three months, using a formal mediation process, the Parties settled all contested issues in the litigation, the terms of which are memorialized in the Agreement. See Jean-Pierre, 538 F.Supp.3d at 213 (granting preliminary approval where settlement was reached "through mediation and arms-length negotiation after two years of difficult litigation"). Negotiation of the terms of the proposed Settlement, moreover, was conducted without regard to the payment of Plaintiffs' attorneys' fees and costs, which was the last term that was negotiated.

(iii) The Proposed Settlement Provides Settlement Class Members with More than Adequate Relief.

When determining whether a class settlement provides the class with adequate relief, a Court must take into account several factors, including "the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C). To determine how the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal would impact the relief the class would be entitled to receive absent the settlement, courts often consider the likelihood of the class achieving a favorable result through litigation, the time it would take to achieve such a result, and the certainty that such a result would provide the class with more ample relief than the settlement. See, e.g., Bacchi, 2017 WL 5177610, at * 2; Roberts v. TJX Cos., Inc., No. 13-cv-13142, 2016 WL 8677312, at * 6-7 (D. Mass. Sept. 30, 2016).

The proposed Settlement provides Settlement Class Members with immediate, tangible benefits. Perhaps most importantly, the Settlement provides the Settlement Classes the full extent of injunctive relief they would have obtained had Plaintiffs succeeded in this case: termination of the SafeRent Score for applicants using vouchers, to be resumed only if SafeRent validates the SafeRent Score through the National Fair Housing Alliance or another similar organization. See Section III.B. This eliminates the allegedly discriminatory practice Plaintiffs challenged with this action, providing significant relief to Settlement Class Members who continue to use vouchers and apply for rental housing in the future with any Massachusetts housing provider that uses SafeRent's tenant screening services, without the risks associated with continued prolonged litigation. And as described above, SafeRent will pay a sum of $1,175,000 into a Settlement Fund, which will be used to make payments to Settlement Class Members to compensate them for any past denial of housing. See Section III.C. Settlement Class Members who submit valid and timely Claim Forms will receive pro rata payments from the Settlement Fund. See Section III.D.

By contrast, although Plaintiffs are confident they would have been successful were the underlying litigation adjudicated, the number of novel legal issues raised in this case would have required extensive additional briefing and argument, as well as additional discovery, all of which involves increased litigation risks. Moreover, even complete success on liability would still have left disputes over the magnitude of damages recoverable by class members, and even disputes over whether damages could be resolved on a class basis. See Jean-Pierre, 538 F.Supp.3d at 213 ("Considering the risk that the class might have received no recovery if this case proceeded to trial, the proposed settlement is likely to be found to be a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of this case."); In re Lupron Mktg. & Sales Practices Litig., 228 F.R.D. 75, 97 (D. Mass. 2005) (risks related to proving damages class-wide weighed in favor of approving settlement); Mongue v. Wheatleigh Corp., No. 18-cv-30095, 2023 WL 5435918, at *7 (D. Mass. Aug. 23, 2023) ("The risk and expense of continued litigation could outweigh any additional recovery Plaintiff might obtain from a litigated outcome.").

(iv) The Proposed Settlement Treats Class Members Equitably.

The settlement agreement must also treat class members equitably by providing that the relief available to individual class members "is determined in accordance with objective criteria and…is neither limited nor enhanced by" the relief afforded to other class members. Bussie v. Allmerica Fin. Corp., 50 F.Supp.2d 59, 75 (D. Mass. 1999). Here, all terms of the proposed Settlement apply equally, without qualification or reservation, to each Settlement Class Member, ensuring that all members of the Settlement Classes benefit in the same manner and to the same extent from the Settlement. Moreover, awarding a 1.5X share of the Settlement Fund to members of both the Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class and the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class ensures that these Settlement Class Members are fairly compensated for releasing two claims (both income-based and race-based claims). See Moreno v. Capital Building Maintenance & Cleaning Servs., Inc., 2021 WL 178847, at *7 (N.D. Cal. May 5, 2021) (finding settlement reasonable where class members with additional claim received larger share of settlement); George v. TRS Staffing Sols., Inc., 2010 WL 11519346, at * (C.D. Cal. Sept. 13, 2010) (finding settlement reasonable where "[p]ersons who are members of both classes will receive separate payments for membership in each class").

C. The Proposed Notice Satisfies Rule 23(e) and the Requirements of Due Process.

Rule 23(e)(1)(B) requires that the Court "direct notice in a reasonable manner to all class members who would be bound by the proposal" in the event it grants preliminary approval of the settlement and certifies a settlement class. Notice must be "reasonably calculated to reach the absent class members." Reppert v. Marvin Lumber & Cedar Co., Inc., 359 F.3d 53, 56 (1st Cir. 2004) (citation omitted). Moreover, the notice must be "the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances," as required by Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

The Parties have agreed on a proposed Notice (Exhibit 3) and method of distributing the Notice which is the most effective method of distributing notice to the class, based on the amount of information SafeRent has on prospective class members and the steps the Settlement Administrator will take to verify class membership. See Section III.D.

The proposed Notice is reasonably calculated to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of this action and their rights to object. The Notice sets forth the background of the case, recites the proposed class definitions, outlines the main terms of the proposed Settlement, explains to Settlement Class Members how to object to the Settlement, opt out from the Settlement, and the deadlines for doing so, and informs Settlement Class Members how they can obtain more information about the proposed Settlement. See Ex. 3; Section III.D. The Notice explains to Settlement Class Members how to submit the Claim Form, which will be attached to the Notice and available on the Settlement Website. See Ex. 3; Section III.D. The Notice also provides information about how a class member may opt out of the Settlement or object to the Settlement at the final approval hearing. See Ex. 3; Section III.D.

For these reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court approve the Notice and hold that this settlement preliminarily satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(e).

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs request that the Court enter an order: (1) conditionally certifying the Settlement Classes for settlement purposes; (2) appointing Mary Louis and Monica Douglas as Settlement Class Representatives and appointing undersigned counsel as Settlement Class Counsel; (3) appointing Epiq as Settlement Administrator; (4) approving the proposed Notice, including SafeRent's provision to the Settlement Administrator of identifying information for Settlement Class Members available in SafeRent's databases, and directing that the Notice be disseminated to the Settlement Classes by the Settlement Administrator; (5) setting a date ninety days from the date Notice is disseminated as the deadline for submission of any objections to the proposed Settlement; and (6) scheduling a fairness hearing on or after November 18, 2024—ninety days after the anticipated deadline for class members to object to the proposed Settlement.

CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Mary Louis and Monica Douglas (the "Settlement Class Representatives"), on behalf of themselves and the Settlement Classes (as defined below), on one hand, and SafeRent Solutions, LLC ("SafeRent"), on the other hand (collectively the "Parties").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Settlement Class Representatives are plaintiffs in a putative class action in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts styled Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10800 (the "Litigation");

WHEREAS, the Complaint and Amended Complaint filed in the Litigation assert putative class action claims against SafeRent for alleged violations of the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 3604 et seq. (the "FHA"), and Massachusetts law, M.G.L. ch. 151B § 4(5), (6), (10) ("Massachusetts Discrimination Law") and M.G.L. ch. 93A § 9 ("Massachusetts Consumer Protection Law"), arising out of use of the proprietary "SafeRent Score" to make rental housing decisions for applicants in Massachusetts holding publicly funded housing vouchers and applicants in Massachusetts holding publicly funded housing vouchers who are Black and/or Hispanic;

WHEREAS, SafeRent filed a motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint on October 27, 2022 on multiple grounds, including that SafeRent is not subject to liability under the FHA or state housing discrimination laws, which was supported by an amicus brief submitted by the Consumer Data Industry Association;

WHEREAS, the Plaintiffs opposed SafeRent's motion to dismiss, which was supported by a statement of interest submitted by the United States Department of Justice and the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development;

WHEREAS, the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts granted in part and denied in part the motion to dismiss on July 26, 2023, dismissing the claims under M.G.L. ch. 93A, and leaving claims under the FHA and Massachusetts Discrimination Law for further litigation;

WHEREAS, the Parties and their counsel conducted arms-length settlement negotiations, including a full-day mediation session with the Honorable Diane M. Welsh (Ret.) on November 6, 2023, and extensive and hard-fought negotiations facilitated by Judge Welsh in the six weeks following;

WHEREAS, the Parties have each conducted an investigation of the facts and have analyzed the relevant legal issues with regard to the claims and defenses asserted in the Litigation;

WHEREAS, SafeRent denies that it engaged in any wrongdoing or that the claims asserted in the Complaint or Amended Complaint have merit;

WHEREAS, the Parties have considered the uncertainties of trial and any appeals and the benefits to be obtained by settlement and have considered the costs, risks, and delays associated with the continued prosecution and defense of this complex and time-consuming litigation and the likely appeals of any rulings in favor of either the Settlement Class Representatives or SafeRent;

WHEREAS, the Parties now desire to resolve all claims of the Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Classes against SafeRent that are asserted in the Litigation to avoid the uncertainty and expense of litigation;

WHEREAS, the Parties intend for this Agreement to supersede all other agreements between the Parties that may exist;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, the Settlement Class Representatives on behalf of themselves and the Settlement Classes, the Settlement Classes, and SafeRent, themselves and through their undersigned counsel, agree to settle the Litigation, subject to Court approval, under the following terms and conditions.

AGREEMENT

1. DEFINITIONS. Unless otherwise indicated or defined above, the following shall be defined terms for purposes of this Agreement. Some of the definitions in this Section use terms that are defined later in the Section.

1.1. "Agreement" means this Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release, including all amendments and Exhibits hereto.

1.2. "Amended Complaint" means the operative first amended class action complaint filed in the Litigation on August 26, 2022 (ECF No. 15).

1.3. "Cash Payment" means the amount to be paid to each Payment Eligible Settlement Class Member as set forth in Section 4.7.1 of this Agreement.

1.4. "Claims" means any and all actual or potential claims, counterclaims, actions, causes of action, liabilities, monetary relief, damages (whether actual, nominal, punitive, exemplary, statutory, or otherwise), injunctive relief, costs, fees, attorneys' fees, or penalties of any kind.

1.5. "Claim Form" means the form that Settlement Class Members must submit, either in paper form or electronically, to obtain a Cash Payment available through this Settlement, in substantially the form of Exhibit E attached hereto. The Claim Form shall require each Settlement Class Member to provide (1) the Settlement Class Member's name and contact information, such as mailing address, phone number, and/or email; and (2) either (a) documentation sufficient to show that the Settlement Class Member held a publicly funded housing voucher during the Relevant Period, or (b) a statement signed under penalty of perjury, which shall be provided in the Claim Form, attesting that the Settlement Class Member held a publicly funded housing voucher during the Relevant Period. If the Settlement Class Member does not provide documentation of the voucher, the Settlement Class Member must identify, if possible, the Public Housing Agency (PHA) that approved and/or issued the voucher and whether the voucher was a federally funded voucher (such as a Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher) or a state funded voucher, and must provide informed consent to the Settlement Administrator to allow the Settlement Administrator to contact any relevant federal, state or local agencies, which would authorize the PHA, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and/or the Massachusetts Executive Office of Housing and Livable Communities (EOHLC) to provide confirmation of the Settlement Class Member's voucher status to the Settlement Administrator; and (3) if the Settlement Class Member claims to be a member of the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class, a statement signed under penalty of perjury that the Settlement Class Member identifies as Black or Hispanic. The Claim Form will contain language informing Settlement Class Members that, by submitting a Claim Form without documentation described in (2)(a) above, the Settlement Class Member is allowing the PHA, HUD, and/or the EOHLC to provide the Settlement Administrator with information about the Settlement Class Member's voucher status and allowing the Settlement Administrator to finally determine whether the Settlement Class Member is Cash Eligible based on the information, if any, provided by the PHA, HUD, and/or EOHLC.

1.6. "Claims Submission Deadline" means the date ninety (90) days after the date the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice pursuant to Section 4.2 of this Agreement, and is the deadline by which Settlement Class Members must submit a Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator in order for the claim to be considered valid, as set forth in Section 4.3.2 of this Agreement.

1.7. "Class Representative Service Award" means an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) for each Mary Louis and Monica Douglas, to be awarded at the discretion of the Court and paid out of the Settlement Fund, which is intended to compensate the Settlement Class Representatives for their work in the Litigation and on behalf of the Settlement Classes.

1.10. "Credit Score" means a numerical value or categorization derived from a statistical tool or modeling system often used by a person who makes or arranges a loan to predict the likelihood of certain credit behaviors, including default. For the avoidance of doubt, a "Credit Score" includes a FICO score, a VantageScore, or similar score that is calculated based on information in a consumer's credit file at a consumer reporting agency (such as Equifax, Experian, or TransUnion) to represent the likelihood that someone will pay back money they borrow. For the avoidance of doubt, a Credit Score is not a Tenant Screening Score.

1.11. "Effective Date" means the date on which all of the following events have occurred: (a) the Court has entered both the Final Approval Order and the Judgment, and (b) either: (i) the time to appeal from the Judgment and all orders entered in connection with the Judgment has expired and no appeal has been taken; or (ii) if a timely appeal of the Judgment or any order entered in connection with the Judgment is taken and the Judgment and all orders entered in connection with the Judgment are not reversed in any way, the date on which the Judgment and all orders entered in connection with the Judgment are no longer subject to further direct appellate review.

1.12. "Exclusion/Objection Deadline" means the date ninety (90) days after the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice pursuant to Section 4.2 of this Agreement, and is the deadline by which Settlement Class Members must exclude themselves from the Settlement Classes or object to the Settlement, as set forth in Sections 4.4 and 4.6 of this Agreement.

1.13. "Final Approval Hearing" means the hearing(s) to be held by the Court, at least two hundred (200) days after the Preliminary Approval Order is entered, to consider and determine whether the proposed Settlement of the Litigation on the terms of this Agreement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and whether both the Final Approval Order and Judgment should be entered. If there are any delays in the dissemination of Notice to the Classes, the Parties agree that they will request a later date for the Final Approval Hearing before the Notice goes out, to allow the notice and claims process to proceed as planned.

1.14. "Final Approval Order" means the order finally approving the Settlement and directing its consummation pursuant to its terms and conditions, approving the Releases, and dismissing the claims asserted by the Settlement Class Representatives against SafeRent in the Litigation with prejudice. The Final Approval Order shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto, subject to such non-substantive modifications as the Court may direct.

1.18. "Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class" means all Black and Hispanic rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order.

"Notice" means the notice of the terms of the proposed Settlement provided to Settlement Class Members in the manner contemplated by Section 4.2 of this Agreement that shall be provided to Settlement Class Members in the manner contemplated by Sections 4.2.1 and 4.2.2 of this Agreement. The Notice shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit D attached hereto.

3. SETTLEMENT TERMS.

3.1. Certification of the Settlement Classes.

3.1.1. Solely for the purposes of Settlement and the proceedings contemplated herein for effectuating the Settlement, the Parties stipulate and agree that the Court may (i) certify the Settlement Classes in accordance with the definitions contained in Sections 1.17, 1.18, and 1.41 of this Agreement; (ii) appoint Mary Louis and Monica Douglas as Settlement Class Representatives to represent the Settlement Classes for Settlement purposes; and (iii) appoint Settlement Class Counsel as counsel for the Settlement Classes. Certification of the Settlement Classes shall be effective and binding only with respect to the Settlement and Agreement.

3.1.2. It is expressly recognized and agreed that this stipulation as to the certification of the Settlement Classes and the appointment of Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel shall be of no force and effect and has no evidentiary significance outside of or beyond enforcing the terms of this Agreement. By entering this Agreement, SafeRent does not waive its right to challenge or contest the maintenance of any lawsuit against it as a class action or to oppose certification of any class other than the Settlement Classes in connection with the Settlement memorialized in this Agreement.

3.2. Financial Consideration for Settlement Classes.

3.2.1. Within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date, SafeRent shall transfer into the Settlement Fund the Settlement Class Dedicated Compensation plus the Settlement Class Potential Additional Compensation, if any, less the Notice And Settlement Administration Costs Advance.

3.2.2. The Notice And Settlement Administration Costs and any Class Representative Service Awards shall be paid exclusively from the Settlement Fund. Following payment of the Notice And Settlement Administration Costs and any Class Representative Service Awards, the remaining funds in the Settlement Fund shall be distributed to Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members as set forth in Section 4.7 of this Agreement.

3.2.3. SafeRent shall have no monetary obligation to Settlement Class Members or to the Settlement Administrator other than the obligations set forth in this Agreement.

3.3. Service Awards to Settlement Class Representatives.

3.3.1. The Parties agree that the Settlement Class Representatives may apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Awards, not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) each for Mary Louis and Monica Douglas. Any such motion, if filed, must be filed at the time the Parties file the motion for preliminary approval of the settlement. Any such motion shall be posted on the Settlement Website within two (2) business days after the Settlement Website becomes operational. Subject to Court approval, SafeRent agrees to pay from the Settlement Fund the Class Representative Service Award(s) in an amount awarded by the Court, provided that any such Award does not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) each for Mary Louis and Monica Douglas.

3.3.2. The Settlement Class Representatives' entitlement, if any, to a Class Representative Service Award will be determined by the Court. The Settlement shall not be conditioned on Court approval of any Class Representative Service Award. In the event the Court declines any motion for a Class Representative Service Award or awards less than the amount sought, but otherwise approves the Settlement, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will continue to be effective and enforceable by the Parties. The Settlement Class Representatives agree not to appeal denial of a motion for a Class Representative Service Award or an award in an amount that is less than requested.

3.3.3. Within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator shall pay any Class Representative Service Award out of the Settlement Fund in accordance with instructions provided in writing by Settlement Class Counsel on any of Settlement Class Counsel's firm letterhead or by email from Settlement Class Counsel.

3.3.4. Any Class Representative Service Award shall be paid and deducted from the Settlement Fund, as set forth in Section 4.7.1 of this Agreement, and shall not increase SafeRent's monetary obligation under this Agreement.

3.4. Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

3.4.1. Settlement Class Counsel may file a motion with the Court requesting an award of attorneys' fees and costs in an amount not to exceed the Settlement Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees And Costs Award Cap (i.e., one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000.00)), to be paid by SafeRent. Any such motion, if it is filed, must be filed at the time the Parties file the motion for preliminary approval of the settlement. Any such motion will be posted on the Settlement Website within two (2) business days after the Settlement Website becomes operational. Subject to Court approval, SafeRent agrees to pay the Settlement Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees And Costs Award in an amount awarded by the Court, provided that any such award does not exceed one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000.00).

3.4.2. Settlement Class Counsel's entitlement, if any, to an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and/or expenses will be determined by the Court. The Settlement shall not be conditioned on Court approval of the Settlement Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees And Costs Award. In the event the Court declines any motion for Settlement Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees And Costs or awards less than the amount sought, but otherwise approves the Settlement, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will continue to be effective and enforceable by the Parties. Settlement Class Counsel agree not to appeal denial of a motion for Settlement Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees And Costs or an award in an amount that is less than requested.

3.4.3. Settlement Class Counsel shall have the sole and absolute discretion to allocate the attorneys' fees and costs among themselves. SafeRent shall have no liability or other responsibility for allocation of any such fees and costs awarded, and, in the event that any dispute arises relating to the allocation of fees, Settlement Class Counsel agree to hold SafeRent harmless from any and all such liabilities, costs, and expenses of such dispute.

3.4.4. Within seven (7) days of the later of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the receipt by SafeRent of all tax forms and/or payment information reasonably requested by SafeRent, SafeRent shall pay any Court-approved Settlement Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees And Costs Award in accordance with instructions provided in writing by Settlement Class Counsel on any of Settlement Class Counsel's firm letterhead or by email from Settlement Class Counsel.

3.4.5. In the event the Court denies a motion by Settlement Class Counsel for an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and/or expenses in connection with the Litigation, or awards less than the Settlement Class Counsel Attorney' Fees And Costs Award Cap (i.e., one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000.00)), then the difference between the amount awarded by the Court and the Settlement Class Counsel Attorney' Fees And Awards Cap (i.e. the "Settlement Class Potential Additional Compensation"), shall be paid by SafeRent into the Settlement Fund as provided in Section 3.2.1 of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the total amount SafeRent shall be required to pay into the Settlement Fund, including payments to Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members, Settlement Class Representatives, and the Settlement Administrator, plus the amount the Court determines SafeRent shall pay to Settlement Class Counsel, shall not exceed the Total Settlement Consideration.

3.5. Practice Change Consideration for Settlement Classes.

3.5.1. In further consideration for the complete and final settlement of the Litigation, the Releases, and other promises and covenants set forth in this Agreement, and subject to the other terms and conditions of this Agreement, SafeRent agrees to comply with the following practices for a period of five (5) years beginning on the date that SafeRent certifies to Settlement Class Counsel that the changes described below have been made, provided that the obligations imposed by this Section 3.5 shall begin no later than the date that is twelve (12) months from the execution date of this Agreement.

3.5.2. For SafeRent customers who subscribe to or purchase the "affordable" SafeRent Score model (or any comparable SafeRent Score model SafeRent may in the future create) and use that model to process a rental application, SafeRent will not include a SafeRent Score or other Tenant Screening Score except as set forth in Section 3.5.5(ii)(1) on that tenant screening report provided in connection with that rental application, or an accept/decline recommendation based on any Tenant Screening Score, but will provide a report with underlying information.

3.5.3. For SafeRent customers who subscribe to or purchase the "market" SafeRent Score model or "no-credit" SafeRent Score model (or any comparable SafeRent Score models SafeRent may in the future create) and use that model to process a rental application, SafeRent shall require the customer to affirmatively certify that the rental applicant for whom they are requesting the "market" or "no-credit" model is not currently a recipient of any publicly-funded federal or state housing voucher in connection with the rental. If the customer does not affirmatively certify to SafeRent that the rental applicant for whom they are requesting the "market" or "no-credit" model is not currently a recipient of any publicly-funded federal or state housing voucher in connection with the rental, SafeRent will not include a SafeRent Score or other Tenant Screening Score except as set forth in Section 3.5.5(ii)(1) on that tenant screening report, or an accept/decline recommendation based on any Tenant Screening Score, but will provide a report with underlying information.

3.5.4. SafeRent shall provide training or instruction about the SafeRent Score to housing providers that will include an explanation of the difference between the "affordable" model and the "market" and "no-credit" models and will explain the changes to the SafeRent products and services that are encompassed in this Agreement.

3.5.5. Nothing in this Agreement or Settlement shall be construed to:

(i) require SafeRent to affirmatively investigate whether an applicant for rental housing from a housing provider that uses SafeRent's tenant screening service is seeking to use publicly funded federal or state housing vouchers, except as expressly provided in this Agreement; or

(ii) prohibit SafeRent from providing, in connection with a rental application subject to Section 3.5.2 or 3.5.3, a tenant screening report or information that may be obtained from public records or from a consumer reporting agency to a housing provider, except as expressly provided in the Agreement, so long as:

(1) the tenant screening report does not include a Tenant Screening Score from a third party or its own revised SafeRent Score model unless (a) that Tenant Screening Score has been found to be valid when used for voucher-holders by the National Fair Housing Alliance, unless Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent mutually agree on another similar organization in the future, or (b) the third party has validated its Tenant Screening Score with an organization agreed to by Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent, except that approval of the validating organization shall not unreasonably be withheld by Settlement Class Counsel if the entity is legitimate and reliable, and

(2) SafeRent affirmatively discloses as part of its report that this report was provided by a third party to SafeRent and identifies the third party; or

(iii) prohibit SafeRent from providing to a housing provider, in connection with a rental application subject to Section 3.5.2 or 3.5.3, a Credit Score that is offered by any third-party entity, such as but not limited to a FICO score or VantageScore, so long as SafeRent affirmatively discloses as part of its report that this was provided by a third party to SafeRent and identifies the third party.

3.6. Releases and Waivers of Rights.

3.6.1. Release by Releasing Parties. Upon entry of the Final Approval Order and accompanying Judgment, and in addition to the preclusive effect of the dismissal with prejudice of the claims asserted against SafeRent in the Litigation pursuant to this Settlement, the Releasing Parties shall be deemed to have released and forever discharged the Released Parties from any and all Released Claims.

3.6.2. Additional Releases and Representations by Settlement Class Representatives. The Settlement Class Representatives further agree to generally release the Released Parties from any Claims arising out of or in any way relating to any conduct that occurred as of the date of the execution of this Agreement.

3.6.3. Additional Representations by Settlement Class Counsel. Settlement Class Counsel certify that, as of the date of the execution of this Agreement, they (i) do not currently represent any client besides Settlement Class Representatives and Community Action Agency of Sommerville, Inc., with claims against SafeRent; (ii) are not aware of any other individual with active claims against SafeRent (excluding public litigation matters already pending against SafeRent); (iii) are not aware of any other entity with claims against or intending to assert claims against SafeRent (excluding public litigation matters already pending against SafeRent); (iv) do not presently intend to solicit any client to assert any claims against SafeRent; and (v) have not encouraged and will not encourage any Settlement Class Member to opt out of this Settlement, and, if asked by a Settlement Class Member for advice as to their specific circumstances, Settlement Class Counsel will use their professional judgment.

3.6.4. Waiver of Rights. The Settlement Class Representatives and each Settlement Class Member fully understand that, except as otherwise set forth herein, the facts upon which this Agreement is executed may be found hereafter to be other than or different from the facts now believed by the Settlement Class Representatives, the Settlement Class Members, Settlement Class Counsel, SafeRent, and SafeRent Counsel to be true, and expressly accept and assume the risk of such possible differences in facts and agree that the Agreement shall remain effective notwithstanding any such difference in facts. The Notice shall expressly advise Settlement Class Members of this waiver.

3.6.5. As to the Released Claims only, upon entry of the Final Order and accompanying Judgment, the Settlement Class Representatives and each Settlement Class Member expressly waive and relinquish the provisions, rights, and benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, and any provisions similar to that provision, which provides: "A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY," as well as any and all provisions, rights, and benefits of any similar, comparable, or equivalent state, federal, or other law, rule, or regulation or the common law or equity. The Settlement Class Representatives and each Settlement Class Member may hereafter discover facts other than, different from, or in addition to those that he, she, or they know(s) or believe(s) to be true and, except as otherwise set forth herein, the Settlement Class Representatives and each Settlement Class Member hereby expressly waive and fully, finally, and forever settle, release, and discharge all known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent Released Claims as of the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, and without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such other, different, or additional facts. The Settlement Class Representatives acknowledge, and the Settlement Class Members shall be deemed by operation of the Final Approval Order and the Judgment to have acknowledged, that the waivers in this Section 3.6.5 were separately bargained for and are a material element of this Agreement.

3.6.6. The scope of the Releases and Waivers in this Section 3.6 is a material term of this Settlement and Agreement.

4. CLASS SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES.

4.1. Preliminary Approval. On or before March 28, 2024, Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel shall file with the Court a motion asking the Court to find that the Court will likely be able to approve this Agreement as fair, reasonable, and adequate and therefore that notice of the Agreement should be provided to the Settlement Class; provisionally certify the Settlement Classes for purposes of the Settlement; provisionally appoint the Settlement Class Representatives as the representatives for the Settlement Classes; provisionally appoint Settlement Class Counsel as counsel for the Settlement Classes; stay further proceedings between the Parties in the Litigation and any litigation of the Released Claims by any member of the Settlement Classes; set the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing; and enter the Preliminary Approval Order substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto. For purposes of Settlement only, SafeRent will not oppose the certification of the Settlement Classes pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2), 23(b)(3), or 23(e) or entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. Entry of the Preliminary Approval Order substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A is a material term of this Agreement.

4.2. Settlement Class Notice. Subject to Court approval, the Parties agree that as soon as practicable, and no later than thirty (30) days after SafeRent provides to the Settlement Administrator and Settlement Class Counsel the Settlement Class Spreadsheet, the Settlement Administrator will provide the Settlement Classes with Notice of the proposed Settlement by the following methods:

4.2.1. Within seven (7) days of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, SafeRent shall provide to the Settlement Administrator and Settlement Class Counsel in the form of the Settlement Class Spreadsheet the names and, if reasonably available to SafeRent, the full or partial Social Security numbers and last known addresses, emails, and telephone numbers of all applicants in Massachusetts who SafeRent assigned a SafeRent Score and, on the basis of that SafeRent Score and the threshold that the housing provider had set, recommended "decline" or "accept with conditions" on an application, between May 25, 2020 and the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. SafeRent shall have no obligation beyond providing the Settlement Class Spreadsheet to attempt to identify, acquire, or report identifying or contact information for the Settlement Classes. The information provided shall only be used by the Settlement Administrator and Settlement Class Counsel for purposes of providing Notice to the Settlement Class and administering the claims process and not for any other purpose. The Settlement Administrator shall use this information, including using this information to obtain current and accurate contact information SafeRent does not possess, to send hardcopy Notices and/or email Notices and/or texts with links to the Settlement Website (if text notice is approved by the Court) to those individuals for whom SafeRent has provided information. The Settlement Administrator shall also search for updated contact information for Class Members as needed, including searching for updated contact information based on any mailings or emails that are returned as undeliverable. After conferring with Settlement Class Counsel, the Settlement Administrator may send additional mailings to potential class members, including but not limited to postcard reminders to any potential class members who have not submitted claims. SafeRent shall have the opportunity to approve in advance any communications with Settlement Class Members provided in connection with Settlement Class Notice, including under this Section. If there is disagreement about nature or substance of any communication that the Parties cannot resolve themselves, the Parties shall ask the Court to resolve the disagreement.

4.2.2. Establishing a Settlement Website at a web address approved in writing by the Parties and dedicated to the Settlement, which shall contain (i) a Notice in substantially the same form as Exhibit D in both downloadable PDF format and HTML format; (ii) a Contact Information page that includes the address for the Settlement Administrator, the toll-free telephone helpline described in Section 2.2.5 of this Agreement, and addresses and telephone numbers for Settlement Class Counsel; (iii) a copy of the Agreement; (iv) the signed Preliminary Approval Order; and (v) a copy of the Claim Form in both downloadable PDF format and HTML format. While the Settlement Administrator shall have final authority over the design and operation of the Settlement Website, the Settlement Administrator shall permit Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent Counsel to test operation of the Settlement Website and shall monitor and if necessary update and modify the Settlement Website to ensure that it performs reliably and consistent with the terms of this Agreement when accessed from all major Internet browsers (desktop and mobile) operating on all major operating systems (including Windows, MacOS, Android, and iOS). The Settlement Administrator shall add to the Settlement Website all other material filings by the Parties or the Court regarding the Settlement, including any motion by Settlement Class Counsel for an Attorneys' Fees And Costs Award or a Class Representative Service Award, the motion for final approval, and any Orders with respect to such applications and motions. The Settlement Website shall remain accessible until at least ninety (90) days after the Effective Date;

4.2.3. Establishing and maintaining a toll-free telephone helpline, which shall be posted on the Settlement Website, to which Settlement Class Members may refer for information about the Litigation and the Settlement Agreement. Those who call the toll-free helpline or who write to the Settlement Administrator may request a printed copy of the Notice and Claim Form, which the Settlement Administrator shall provide by first class mail. The toll-free helpline shall remain active until at least sixty (60) days after the Effective Date;

4.2.4. Providing notice as required by the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

4.2.5. The Court may require changes to the notice process without invalidating this Settlement provided that the material terms of the Settlement, including the scope of the Release and the total financial obligations imposed on SafeRent, are not altered by such changes.

4.3. Submission of Claims by Settlement Class Members.

4.3.1. Settlement Class Members will be provided an opportunity to submit electronically or by mail or email a Claim Form seeking a Cash Payment, paid by check or electronically, calculated in accordance with Section 4.7.1 of this Agreement. The Settlement Administrator will mail and/or email the Claim Form to those individuals who are sent the Notice pursuant to Section 4.2.1, with pre-paid return postage and an envelope to submit a hardcopy Claim Form, or for email notice, a link to the Settlement Website. The Claim Form will be available on the Settlement Website, and the Settlement Administrator shall ensure that the Claim Form can be filled out and signed electronically. For Claim Forms submitted online, the Settlement Class Member shall have the opportunity to upload documentation supporting the validity of the Claim Form through image files (e.g., jpg, tif, pdf), or to forward emails from any federal, state, or local agency or housing authority supporting the validity of the Claim Form.

4.3.2. To be valid and/or considered for payment, a Claim Form must be completed and signed (either by physical or electronic signature or by affirmation) as detailed herein, and either (i) submitted online at the Settlement Website no later than ninety (90) days after the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice, or (ii) mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the address specified in the Claim Form and provided on the return envelope sent with the Notice and Claim Form, and postmarked no later than ninety (90) days after the date the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice (together the "Claims Submission Deadline"). Claim Forms will not be considered for payment if they are submitted online or postmarked after the Claims Submission Deadline. A Claim Form will be deemed to have been submitted when posted if received with a postmark date indicated on the envelope, mailed first-class postage prepaid, and addressed in accordance with the instructions. If necessary, the Parties will work cooperatively to request any Court extensions to the timeline for seeking final approval of this Settlement or making Cash Payments to Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members that are reasonably needed to validate Claim Forms based on the time it takes for any federal, state, or local agency or housing authority to verify the voucher status of any Settlement Class Members who have submitted Claim Forms, but these extensions, if any, shall not affect the deadlines for submitting a Claim Form, requesting exclusion pursuant to Section 4.4, or objecting to the Settlement under Section 4.6.

4.3.3. The Settlement Administrator shall in no case approve more than one (1) claim per Settlement Class Member. If a Settlement Class Member for any reason submits multiple Claim Forms, that Class Member shall be approved for only one (1) claim.

4.3.4. The Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for reviewing, determining the validity of, and responding to all Claim Forms submitted pursuant to this Agreement. The Settlement Administrator shall use adequate and customary procedures and standards to prevent the payment of fraudulent claims and pay only valid claims. The Settlement Administrator will include a "cure" process so that a Settlement Class Member who submits a timely Claim Form that is deficient in some way is given notice of the deficiency and the chance to cure such deficiency, so long as such cured Claim Form is received by the Settlement Administrator no later than one hundred and thirty-five (135) days after the Notice was first disseminated. The Settlement Administrator will approve Claim Forms and issue payment based upon the terms and conditions of the Agreement and may reject claims that are invalid or evidence waste, fraud, or abuse. The determination of the validity of all claims shall occur within one hundred and forty-five (145) days of the date the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice. All Claim Forms that the Settlement Administrator deems untimely or that the Settlement Administrator, after the Settlement Class Member has been given an opportunity to "cure" the Claim Form, continues to deem invalid shall be identified and presented to Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent Counsel, who shall meet-and-confer over the validity and timeliness of any claim within one hundred and fifty-two (152) days of the date the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice. If Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent Counsel cannot agree whether a claim is valid and timely, then the Settlement Administrator shall determine whether a claim is valid and timely. Any challenge to the Settlement Administrator's determination that a claim is invalid or untimely must be presented to the Court in time for such challenge to be resolved at the Final Approval Hearing; otherwise, the claim shall be deemed invalid.

4.3.5. Within one hundred and fifty-nine (159) days of the date the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice, the Settlement Administrator shall attempt to contact the Settlement Class Member whose claim was denied to state the reasons for denial using the contact information provided by the Settlement Class Member on the Claim Form.

4.3.6. No person or entity shall have any claim against the Settlement Class Representatives, SafeRent, Settlement Class Counsel, SafeRent Counsel, or the Settlement Administrator based on any determination regarding the validity of a Claim Form or the distributions or awards made in accordance with this Agreement and the Exhibits hereto.

4.4. Requests for Exclusion. The Notice shall inform Settlement Class Members that they may exclude themselves from the Settlement Classes by mailing to the Settlement Administrator a written request for exclusion that is postmarked no later than the Exclusion/Objection Deadline, i.e., no later than ninety (90) days after the Settlement Administrator first disseminates Notice. To be effective, the request for exclusion must include (a) the Settlement Class Member's full name and contact information (telephone number, email, and/or mailing address); (b) a clear and unequivocal statement that the Settlement Class Member wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Classes; (c) an unequivocal reference by name of the Litigation, e.g., "Louis v. SafeRent, Case No. 1:22-cv-10800"; and (d) the Settlement Class Member's signature or the signature or affirmation of an individual authorized to act on the Settlement Class Member's behalf. Upon the Settlement Administrator's receipt of a timely and valid exclusion request, the Settlement Class Member shall be deemed excluded from the Settlement Classes and shall not be entitled to any benefits of this Settlement. A Settlement Class Member may request to be excluded from the Settlement only on the Settlement Class Member's own behalf; a Settlement Class Member may not request that other Settlement Class Members (or a group or subclass of Settlement Class Members) be excluded from the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall provide copies of all timely and valid exclusion requests to Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent Counsel. A list of Settlement Class Members who have timely and validly excluded themselves from the Settlement Classes pursuant to this Section 4.4 shall be attached to the Final Approval Order or otherwise recorded by the Court. The Settlement Administrator shall compare the list of Class Members requesting exclusion to the list of Class Members who have submitted claims, and if any Class Member is on both lists, the Settlement Administrator shall contact that Class Member for clarification as to whether that Class Member wishes to be excluded or included in the Settlement Class. If no response to the Settlement Administrator's outreach is received within fourteen (14) days clarifying that Class Member's intention, then that Class Member shall be deemed included in the Settlement Class.

4.5. SafeRent's Right to Terminate Based on Exclusions. In the event that more than fifty (50) members of the Settlement Class submit valid and timely requests for exclusion from the Settlement, SafeRent will have the option to void the Settlement ab initio by, within ten (10) business days after receiving notice that the number of timely and valid exclusions exceeds fifty (50), giving notice to Settlement Class Counsel that SafeRent is terminating and rescinding this Agreement and voiding the Settlement ab initio. In the event of termination, the Litigation will recommence at the procedural posture it was in at the time the Parties notified the Court that a private mediation date had been set, and the Parties will seek a status conference to set a discovery and litigation schedule within fourteen (14) business days after SafeRent's notice of termination.

4.6. Objections. The Notice shall inform Settlement Class Members that, if they do not request exclusion from the Settlement Classes, they have the right to object to the proposed Settlement only by complying with the objection provisions set forth in this Section 4.6 of this Agreement. Settlement Class Members who object to the proposed Settlement shall remain Settlement Class Members and shall have voluntarily waived their right to pursue any independent remedy against the Released Parties. Any Settlement Class Member who wishes to object to the proposed Settlement must file or send to the Court a written objection that is postmarked or filed no later than the Exclusion/Objection Deadline, i.e., no later than ninety (90) days after the Notice is first mailed. To be effective, an objection must (a) include an unequivocal reference to the case name and number of the Litigation, e.g., "Louis v. SafeRent, Case No. 1:22-cv-10800"; (b) contain the full name, mailing address, and telephone number of the Settlement Class Member objecting to the Settlement (the "Objector"); (c) include the Objector's signature or the signature or affirmation of an individual authorized to act on the Objector's behalf; (d) state with specificity the grounds for the objection; (e) state whether the objection applies only to the Objector, to a specific subset of the class, or to the entire class; (f) contain the name, address, bar number, and telephone number of counsel for the Objector, if represented or counseled in any degree by an attorney in connection with the objection; and (g) state whether the Objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either personally or through counsel. If the Objector or the Objector's attorney intends to call witnesses or present evidence at the Final Approval Hearing, the objection must in addition to the requirements above contain the following information: (a) a list identifying all witnesses whom the Objector may call at the Final Approval Hearing and all known addresses and phone numbers for each witness, together with a reasonably detailed report of the testimony the witness will offer at the hearing; and (b) a detailed description of all other evidence the Objector will offer at the Final Approval Hearing, including copies of any and all exhibits that the Objector may introduce at the Final Approval Hearing. To the extent any Settlement Class Member objects to the proposed Settlement and such objection is overruled in whole or in part, such Settlement Class Member will be forever bound by the Final Approval Order and accompanying Judgment.

4.7. Distribution of Cash Payments.

4.7.1. Within forty-five (45) days after the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator shall deduct from the Settlement Fund any Notice And Settlement Administration Costs and pay any Class Representative Service Awards ordered by the Court and then, from the funds remaining in the Settlement Fund, make Cash Payments to Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members as follows:

4.7.1.1. Each Payment Eligible Settlement Class Member shall receive a share of the remaining Settlement Fund as follows: Members of the Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class only or the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class only shall receive a 1X share of the Settlement fund, and Members of both the Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class and the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class shall receive a 1.5X share. For example, if 400 Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members of only the Income-Based Class or only the Race-Based Class and 400 Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members of both the Income- and Race-Based Classes file valid claims, and there is $1,000,000 remaining in the Settlement Fund, each Payment Eligible Settlement Class Member of only the Income-Based Class or only the Race-Based Class would receive $1,000, and each Payment Eligible Settlement Class Member of both the Income- and Race-Based Classes would receive $1,500. Subject to the Court's approval, Settlement Class Members shall indicate on the Claim Form whether they wish to receive their settlement payment in a single-lump sum payment or spread in equal parts across two years.

4.7.2. By default, Cash Payments for Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members shall be paid by check with an appropriate legend to indicate that the check is from the Settlement, and mailed to the address provided on the Claim Form submitted by the Class Member. The Settlement Administrator shall also allow Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members to elect to receive their Cash Payment by direct bank deposit or electronic transfer (e.g., PayPal, Venmo) and, if such election is made in the form provided by the Settlement Administrator, shall make the Cash Payment to the Payment Eligible Settlement Class Member through the method so elected.

4.7.3. Checks mailed to Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members shall be valid for one hundred eighty (180) days after issuance. The Settlement Administrator will make reasonable efforts to make contact with and/or locate the proper address for any intended recipient of a Cash Payment whose check is returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable, and will re-mail it to the updated address so long as the updated address is obtained before the expiration of the 180-day period. If a settlement check is not cashed within the 180-day period, the Settlement Class Member shall not be entitled to any further payment under the Settlement. The amount of any settlement checks that are not cashed during this 180-day period shall be distributed in a manner mutually agreeable to the Parties, Settlement Class Counsel, and SafeRent Counsel (for example, through a second distribution to Payment Eligible Settlement Class Members if economically feasible, or through a cy pres distribution), subject to the approval of the Court. In no event shall any uncashed amounts after distribution revert to SafeRent.

4.7.4. No deductions for taxes will be taken from any Cash Payment at the time of distribution. Settlement Class Members are responsible for paying all taxes due on such Cash Payments. Under no circumstance shall SafeRent be held liable for any tax payments with respect to the Cash Payments. All Cash Payments shall be deemed to be paid solely in the year in which such payments are actually issued. Neither Settlement Class Counsel nor SafeRent Counsel purport to provide legal advice on tax matters. To the extent this Agreement, or any of its exhibits or related materials, is interpreted to contain or constitute advice regarding any federal or state tax issue, such advice is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person or entity for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code or any state's tax laws.

4.8. No Further Confirmatory Discovery. The Parties exchanged information through informal discovery in connection with the November 6, 2023 mediation and settlement talks thereafter, which information was also provided to the mediator, Judge Welsh (ret.). Settlement Class Representatives and SafeRent represent and warrant that all of the information they or their counsel provided in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations is true and correct based on information reasonably available and to the best of their knowledge. SafeRent is not required to provide any additional discovery, whether formal or informal, to the Settlement

Class Representatives, the Settlement Classes, or Settlement Class Counsel, beyond the information provided to the Settlement Administrator pursuant to Section 4.2.1.

4.9. Finality. The Settlement shall become final and effective on the Effective Date.

5. FINAL JUDGMENT AND RELEASES.

5.1. Actions to Obtain Approval of this Agreement. The Parties agree to use their best efforts to obtain approval of the Settlement and entry of the Orders contemplated herein, including without limitation certification of the Settlement Classes and the entry of the Preliminary and Final Approval Orders, and shall do nothing inconsistent therewith.

5.2. Final Approval Order and Judgment. The Settlement is contingent on entry of a Final Approval Order approving the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and Judgment thereon. No earlier than one hundred and fifty-five (155) days and no later than one hundred and sixty-five (165) days after the Settlement Administrator first distributes Notice to the Settlement Class, the Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel shall submit to the Court a motion for entry of a Final Approval Order substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto.

5.3. Effect of Agreement if Settlement Is Not Approved. This Agreement is entered into only for the purpose of Settlement. In the event that certification of the Settlement Classes, preliminary or final approval of the Settlement, or any other order necessary to effectuate this Settlement is denied, or if the Court or a reviewing court takes any action to impair or reduce the scope or effectiveness of the Releases set forth in Section 3.6 herein, or to impose greater or lesser financial or other burdens on SafeRent than those contemplated in this Settlement, then this Settlement shall be void ab initio, shall have no force or effect, and shall impose no obligations on the Parties except that the Parties (i) will be prohibited from using this Settlement and any settlement and mediation communications as evidence in the Litigation and (ii) agree to cooperate in asking the Court to set a reasonable schedule for the resumption of the Litigation; and (iii) the Settlement Administrator will be paid from the advance made by SafeRent for any work completed, and the balance of the advance will be returned to SafeRent. The intent of the previous sentence is that, in the event that a necessary approval is denied, the Parties will revert to their positions immediately before the execution of this Agreement, and the Litigation will resume without prejudice to any party. In the event of such a reversion, the Parties agree that no class will be deemed to have been certified, and that the proposed or actual certification of any settlement class will not be urged or considered as a factor in any subsequent litigation over the certification of a litigation class or classes, and that no Claims have been released.

5.4. Dismissal. Upon entry of the Final Approval Order and accompanying Judgment, except as to any Settlement Class Members who have validly and timely requested exclusion, all Claims by Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Members against SafeRent in the Amended Complaint shall be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to this Settlement. Dismissal with prejudice is a material term of this Settlement.

6. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

6.1. No Admission of Liability or Wrongdoing. This Agreement reflects the compromise and settlement of disputed claims among the Parties. Its constituent provisions, and any and all drafts, communications, and discussions relating thereto, shall not be construed as, used for, or deemed to be evidence of an admission or concession of any point of fact or law by any person or entity, including SafeRent, and shall not be offered or received in evidence or requested in discovery in this Litigation or any other litigation or proceeding as evidence of an admission or concession. SafeRent has denied and continues to deny each of the claims and contentions alleged by the Settlement Class Representatives in the Litigation. SafeRent has asserted and continues to assert defenses thereto, and SafeRent has expressly denied and continues to deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of any of the facts or conduct alleged in the Complaint and Amended Complaint.

6.2. Fair, Adequate and Reasonable Settlement. The Parties believe this Settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable settlement of the Parties' claims and defenses in the Litigation and have arrived at this Settlement through arms-length negotiations, taking into account all relevant factors, present and potential. This Settlement was reached after negotiations that included a daylong mediation conducted by the Honorable Diane M. Welsh (ret.).

6.3. Stay and Bar of Other Proceedings. Pending determination of whether the Settlement should be granted final approval, the Parties agree not to pursue any claims or defenses against each other otherwise available to them in the Litigation. No Settlement Class Member, either directly, on a representative basis, or in any other capacity, may commence or prosecute any action or proceeding against any of the Released Parties asserting any of the Released Claims, pending final approval of the Settlement; nor shall any third party do so on their behalf.

6.4. Authorization. Each person executing this Settlement Agreement on behalf of any Party hereto represents and warrants that such person has the authority to do so, subject to applicable court approval. Any person executing this Settlement Agreement on behalf of a corporate signatory hereby warrants and promises for the benefit of all Parties that such person is duly authorized by such corporation to execute this Agreement.

6.5. Voluntary Agreement. This Agreement is executed voluntarily and without duress or undue influence on the part of or on behalf of the Parties, or of any other person, firm, or entity.

6.6. Binding On Successors. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the respective successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, and personal representatives of each of the Parties.

6.7. Parties Represented by Counsel. The Parties hereby acknowledge that they have been represented in negotiations for and in the preparation of this Agreement by independent counsel of their own choosing, that they have read this Agreement and have had it fully explained to them by such counsel, and that they are fully aware of the contents of this Agreement and of its legal effect.

6.8. Construction and Interpretation. The Parties waive the application of any applicable law, regulation, holding, or rule of construction providing that ambiguities in an agreement shall be construed against the party drafting such agreement.

6.9. Continuing Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Parties to this Agreement for the purpose of administration and enforcement of the Agreement for a period of five years from the date SafeRent confirms it has made the practice changes outlined in Section 3.5. Any dispute, challenge, question, or the like relating to the Settlement or this Agreement may be heard by this Court.

6.10. Merger and Integration. This Agreement (including the Recitals to this Agreement, which are contractual in nature and form a material part of this Agreement) constitutes the exclusive embodiment of the entire agreement between the Parties with regard to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements between the Parties (including but not limited to the Memorandum of Settlement executed on December 22, 2023 between SafeRent, SafeRent's Counsel, and Settlement Class Counsel). This Agreement is entered without reliance on any promise or representation, written or oral, between the Parties or their counsel other than those expressly contained herein.

6.11. Modifications and Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended except by a writing signed by the Parties or a duly authorized representative of each of the Parties hereto and, where required, approval of the Court.

6.12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with federal law and the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts without regard to any conflicts of laws principles.

6.13. Headings. The various headings used in this Agreement are solely for the convenience of the Parties and shall not be used to interpret this Agreement.

6.14. Exhibits. Exhibits to this Agreement constitute material parts of this Agreement and are incorporated by reference herein.

6.15. Effect of Weekends and Holidays. If any date or deadline in this Agreement falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal holiday, the next business day following the date or deadline shall be the operative date.

6.16. Execution Date. This Agreement shall be deemed executed on March 28, 2024.

6.17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be regarded as an original and all of which shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the signatories below has read and understood this Agreement, has executed it, and represents that they are authorized to execute the Agreement on behalf of any Party or Parties they represent, that Party or Parties having agreed to be bound by the terms and enter into this Agreement.

Exhibit A

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

MARY LOUIS AND MONICA DOUGLAS, ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND SIMILARLY SITUATED PERSONS, AND COMMUNITY ACTION AGENCY OF SOMERVILLE, INC., Plaintiffs, v. SAFERENT SOLUTIONS, LLC AND METROPOLITAN MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC, Defendants.	Civil Action No. 1:22-CV-10800-AK

[PROPOSED] ORDER CERTIFYING THE CLASSES FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES AND DIRECTING NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT TO THE CLASSES

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion to Certify the Classes for Settlement Purposes and Direct Notice to the Settlement Classes (the "Motion"). After review and consideration of the parties' Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release (the "Agreement"), the papers filed in support of the Motion, including the Welsh Declaration and the proposed form of Notice to be disseminated to the Settlement Classes, and all prior proceedings in this action, the Court hereby FINDS, CONCLUDES, and ORDERS as follows:

1. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Agreement.

2. The Court finds that this action is maintainable as a class action because the prerequisites of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) are met, for the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' Memorandum. The Court therefore conditionally certifies, for settlement purposes only, the following "Settlement Classes" as defined in the Agreement:

> All rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class");
> All Black and Hispanic rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class").

3. Certification of the Settlement Classes is for settlement purposes only, and is without prejudice to the parties in the event the Settlement is not finally approved by this Court or does not otherwise take effect.

4. For the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' Memorandum, the Court finds that it will likely be able to approve the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The Court specifically finds that the Settlement is the product of arms' length negotiations between competent counsel, reached with the aid of an experienced professional mediator, and comes after adequate investigation of the facts and legal issues by Plaintiffs and Defendant SafeRent. The Court further preliminarily finds that the relief provided in the Settlement to the Settlement Classes is adequate, taking into account, among other things, the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal, and the proposed method of distributing compensation to the Settlement Classes; and that the Settlement treats Settlement Class Members equitably relative to one another.

5. The Court finds that Mary Louis and Monica Douglas have adequately represented and will continue to adequately represent the Settlement Classes, and therefore appoints Ms. Louis and Ms. Douglas as the Settlement Class Representatives for both Settlement Classes.

6. The Court finds that Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, Greater Boston Legal Services, and the National Consumer Law Center have adequately represented, and will continue to adequately represent the Settlement Classes, and therefore appoints those law offices as Settlement Class Counsel.

7. The Court appoints Epiq as Settlement Administrator and directs Epiq to carry out all of the duties and responsibilities of Settlement Administrator as specified in the Agreement and this Order. All reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the Settlement Administrator will be paid exclusively as set forth in the Agreement.

8. The Court finds that there are grounds to issue Notice to all Settlement Class Members. The Court has reviewed the proposed Notice and the proposed method for distributing the Notice and concludes that such Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances to the Settlement Classes and satisfies Rule 23(e) and due process, including by providing Settlement Class Members with sufficient information to enable them to make informed decisions as to the right to object or opt out of the Settlement, and hereby orders Settlement Class Counsel, SafeRent, and the Settlement Administrator to effectuate Notice of the Settlement as set forth in Section 4.2 of the Agreement.

9. The Court orders SafeRent to provide the names and, if reasonably available to SafeRent, the full or partial Social Security numbers, last known addresses, emails, and telephone numbers of all applicants for housing in Massachusetts who SafeRent assigned a SafeRent Score and, on the basis of that SafeRent Score and the threshold that the housing provider had set, recommended “decline” or “accept with conditions” on an application, between

May 25, 2020 and the date of entry of this Order.

10. The parties may hereafter agree to non-material changes to the notice plan, including to the form and content of the Notice, without seeking further approval of the Court.

11. The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) on November 18, 2024 at the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts for the following purposes:

a. To determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be granted final approval by the Court;

b. To determine whether a final judgment should be entered dismissing the claims of the Settlement Classes with prejudice, as required by the Settlement;

c. To consider the application by Settlement Class Counsel for an award of attorney's fees and costs, and the application for service awards to the Settlement Class Representatives; and

d. To rule upon other such matters as the Court may deem appropriate.

This date, time, and place of the Final Approval Hearing shall be included in the settlement Notice to the Settlement Classes. If, however, the date and/or time of Final Approval Hearing is changed, notice of the change need only be posted by the Court on the case docket and by the Settlement Administrator on its case-related website.

12. If a Settlement Class Member chooses to opt out of the settlement, that Settlement Class Member is required to submit a request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator that complies with the provisions set forth in Section 4.4 of the Agreement. The request for exclusion must be postmarked on or before the Exclusion/Objection Deadline, i.e., no later than ninety (90) days after Notice is disseminated. To be effective, the request for exclusion must include (a) the Settlement Class Member's full name, telephone number, and mailing address; (b) a clear and unequivocal statement that the Settlement Class Member wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Classes; (c) an unequivocal reference by name of the Litigation, e.g., "Louis v. SafeRent, Case No. 1:22-cv-10800"; and (d) the Settlement Class Member's signature or the signature or affirmation of an individual authorized to act on the Settlement Class Member's behalf.

13. Upon the Settlement Administrator's receipt of a timely and valid exclusion request, the Settlement Class Member shall be deemed excluded from the Settlement Classes and shall not be entitled to any benefits of the Settlement. A Settlement Class Member may request to be excluded from the Settlement only on the Settlement Class Member's own behalf; a Settlement Class Member may not request that other Settlement Class Members (or a group or subclass of Settlement Class Members) be excluded from the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall provide copies of all timely and valid exclusion requests to Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent Counsel.

14. Any Class Member who wishes to be heard at the Final Approval Hearing, and/or who wishes for any objection to be considered, must comply with the objection provisions set forth in Section 4.6 of the Agreement. Any Settlement Class Member who wishes to object to the proposed Settlement must file or send to the Court a written objection that is postmarked or filed no later than the Exclusion/Objection Deadline, i.e., no later than ninety (90) days after the Notice is first mailed. To be effective, an objection must (a) include an unequivocal reference to the case name and number of the Litigation, e.g., "Louis v. SafeRent, Case No. 1:22-cv-10800"; (b) contain the full name, mailing address, and telephone number of the Settlement Class Member objecting to the Settlement (the "Objector"); (c) include the Objector's signature or the signature or affirmation of an individual authorized to act on the Objector's behalf; (d) state with specificity the grounds for the objection; (e) state whether the objection applies only to the Objector, to a specific subset of the class, or to the entire class; (f) contain the name, address, bar number, and telephone number of counsel for the Objector, if represented or counseled in any degree by an attorney in connection with the objection; and (g) state whether the Objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either personally or through counsel.

15. If the Objector or the Objector's attorney intends to call witnesses or present evidence at the Final Approval Hearing, the objection must in addition to the requirements above contain the following information: (a) a list identifying all witnesses whom the Objector may call at the Final Approval Hearing and all known addresses and phone numbers for each witness, together with a reasonably detailed report of the testimony the witness will offer at the hearing; and (b) a detailed description of all other evidence the Objector will offer at the Final Approval Hearing, including copies of any and all exhibits that the Objector may introduce at the Final Approval Hearing. To the extent any Settlement Class Member objects to the proposed Settlement and such objection is overruled in whole or in part, such Settlement Class Member will be forever bound by the Final Approval Order and accompanying Judgment.

16. Settlement Class Counsel or SafeRent Counsel may notice the deposition of the Objector and seek the production of documents and tangible things relevant to the Objector's objection on an expedited basis. Any objections to the scope of a deposition notice or a request to produce documents or other tangible things issued or served in connection with this provision shall be brought before the Court for resolution on an expedited basis.

17. Unless the Court directs otherwise, any Settlement Class Member who fails to comply with the provisions of the Settlement or this Order will waive and forfeit any and all rights he, she, or it may have to object to the Settlement and/or to appear and be heard on said objection at the Final Approval Hearing. Failure to object waives a Settlement Class Member's right to appeal the Final Approval Order.

18. Other than such proceeding as are necessary to carry out the terms of the Settlement and this Order, all other deadlines set in this Action involving claims between the parties to the Settlement shall be suspended and all proceedings in this Action other than to effectuate the Settlement shall be stayed.

19. If the Court for any reason does not finally approve the Settlement or enter Judgment, or if any other order necessary to effectuate the Settlement is denied, or if the Court or a reviewing court takes any action to impair or reduce the scope or effectiveness of the Releases set forth in the Agreement or to impose greater or lesser financial or other burdens on SafeRent than those contemplated in the Agreement, then the Settlement shall be void ab initio. SafeRent shall also have the right to terminate the Settlement if the number of timely and valid opt-outs exceeds fifty (50).

20. This Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement, and all negotiations, statements, agreements, and proceedings relating to the Settlement shall not constitute or be offered or received against SafeRent or the other Released Parties as evidence of an admission of the truth of any fact alleged by any Plaintiff in this action or any liability, fault, or wrongdoing of SafeRent or the Released Parties; or that this or any other action may be properly certified as a class action for litigation, non-settlement purposes.

21. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over this action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Settlement.

22. The Court may, for good cause, extend any of the deadlines set forth in this Preliminary Approval Order or the Settlement. If a deadline is extended under this provision, notice of the change need only be posted by the Court on the case docket and by the Settlement Administrator on the Settlement Website. The following chart summarizes the dates and deadlines currently set by this Preliminary Approval Order:

Event	Date
SafeRent provides the names and, if reasonably available to SafeRent, the full or partial Social Security numbers and last known addresses, emails, and telephone numbers of persons described in Section 4.2.1 of the Agreement	within 7 days of entry of this Preliminary Approval Order

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

MARY LOUIS AND MONICA DOUGLAS, ON BEHALF OF THEMSELVES AND SIMILARLY SITUATED PERSONS, AND COMMUNITY ACTION AGENCY OF SOMERVILLE, INC., Plaintiffs, v. SAFERENT SOLUTIONS, LLC AND METROPOLITAN MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC, Defendants.	Civil Action No. 1:22-CV-10800-AK

[PROPOSED] FINAL APPROVAL ORDER

This matter came before the Court for hearing on [DATE] regarding Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval of the Class Action Settlement and Release ("Agreement") between Plaintiffs and Defendant SafeRent Solutions, LLC ("SafeRent") (collectively the "Parties"). Having considered the Motion, the exhibits and declarations attached thereto, and all other filings and argument related to the Motion, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Motion is GRANTED under Rule 23(e)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Court makes the following findings and rulings:

1. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Agreement.

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1367, has personal jurisdiction over the Parties and the Settlement Class Members, and venue is proper in this District.

3. The Court hereby affirms its preliminary determinations in the Preliminary Approval Order that the Settlement Classes meet the requirements for certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3), and finally certifies, for purposes of the Settlement only, the Settlement Classes as defined in the Settlement Agreement:

> All rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class");
> All Black and Hispanic rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class").

4. For purposes of the Settlement only, the Court hereby re-affirms its determinations in the Preliminary Approval Order; finally certifies Plaintiffs Mary Louis and Monica Douglas as Class Representatives for the Settlement Classes; and finally appoints Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, Greater Boston Legal Services, and the National Consumer Law Center as Class Counsel for the Settlement Classes.

5. The Court finds that the notice provisions of the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, were complied with in this matter.

6. The Court finds that the method for disseminating Notice to the Settlement Classes, as provided for in the Settlement Agreement and previously approved and directed by this Court's Preliminary Approval Order, has been implemented by the Settlement Administrator and the Parties. The Court finds that the method for disseminating the Notice (A) constituted the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances; (B) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to appraise Settlement Class Members of (i) the nature of the Litigation, (ii) the definition of the Settlement Classes, (iii) the class claims and issues, (iv) the opportunity to enter an appearance through an attorney any Settlement Class Member so desired, (v) the opportunity, time, and manner for requesting exclusion from the Settlement, and (vi) the binding effect of a class judgment; (C) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to notice; and (D) met the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the due process guarantees of the U.S. Constitution, and all other applicable laws.

7. The Court finds that all Settlement Class Members and all persons who fall within the definition of either of the Settlement Classes has been adequately provided with an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement by submitting a request for exclusion in conformity with the Agreement and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order. A list of those persons who timely and validly excluded themselves from the Settlement is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Persons listed on Exhibit A are not bound by the Agreement, this Final Approval Order, or the accompanying Judgment, and are entitled to no relief under the Agreement. All other persons who fall within the definition of the Settlement Classes are Settlement Class Members and part of this Settlement, and shall be bound by this Final Approval Order, the accompanying Judgment, and the Agreement.

8. [PLACEHOLDER FOR DETAILS ON ANY OBJECTIONS]

9. [PLACEHOLDER FOR DETAILS ON SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR REPRESENTATIONS ABOUT NOTICE AND CLAIMS PROCESS AND RESPONSE RATE]

10. The Court hereby finally approves the Settlement and finds that the Settlement is, in all respects, fair, reasonable, and adequate and in the best interests of the Plaintiffs and Settlement Classes, having considered that (A) the Settlement Class Representatives and

Settlement Class Counsel have adequately represented the Settlement Classes; (B) the Agreement is the result of arm's-length negotiations between experienced counsel representing the interests of Plaintiffs, the Settlement Classes, and SafeRent; (C) the relief provided for the Settlement Classes is adequate, taking into account the costs, risks, and delay of further litigation, trial, and appeal, and the effectiveness of the method set forth in the Agreement for distributing relief to the Settlement Classes, including the method of processing class-member claims; and (D) the Agreement treats Settlement Class Members equitably relative to each other.

11. The Parties and Settlement Administrator are accordingly directed to consummate and implement the Agreement in accordance with its terms, including distributing payments to Cash Eligible Settlement Class Members and paying the Notice and Settlement Administration Costs.

12. The claims filed against SafeRent in this case are dismissed in their entirety, with prejudice, and each side is to bear its own costs except as specified in the Agreement and the Court's separate order regarding attorneys' fees.

13. Upon entry of this Order and the accompanying Judgment, and in addition to the preclusive effect of the dismissal with prejudice of the claims asserted against SafeRent in the Litigation pursuant to the Settlement, the Releasing Parties shall be deemed to have released and forever discharged the Released Parties from any and all Released Claims.

14. Additionally, the Settlement Class Representatives shall be deemed to have released and forever discharged the Released Parties from any Claims arising out of or in any way relating to any conduct that occurred as of the date of the execution of the Agreement.

15. A separate order shall be entered regarding Class Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and costs as allowed by the Court.

16. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Settlement Class Representatives, Settlement Class Counsel, SafeRent, and SafeRent Counsel release and forever discharge each other from any and all claims relating to the institution or prosecution of the Action.

17. Without affecting the finality of this Final Approval Order and the accompanying Judgment in any way, the Court expressly retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Parties to this Agreement for the purpose of administration and enforcement of the Agreement for a period of five years from the date SafeRent confirms it has made the practice changes outlined in Section 3.5 of the Agreement. Any dispute, challenge, question, or the like relating to the Settlement or Agreement may be heard by this Court.

18. In the event that the Effective Date does not come to pass, this Final Approval Order and the accompanying Judgment shall be rendered null and void and shall be vacated, nunc pro tunc, except insofar as expressly provided to the contrary in the Agreement, and without prejudice to the status quo ante rights of Settlement Class Representatives, Settlement Class Members, and SafeRent.

19. This Final Approval Order, the accompanying Judgment, the Preliminary Approval Order, the Agreement, all negotiations, statements, agreements, and proceedings relating to the Agreement, and any matters arising in connection with settlement negotiations, proceedings, or agreements shall not constitute or be described as, construed as, offered as or received against SafeRent or the other Released Parties as evidence or an admission of: (a) the truth of any fact alleged by Settlement Class Representatives in the Litigation; (b) any liability, negligence, fault, or wrongdoing of or by SafeRent or the Released Parties; or (c) that this Litigation or any other action may be properly certified as a class action for litigation, non-settlement purposes.

About This Notice

Why did I get this notice?

This notice is to tell you about the settlement of a class action lawsuit, Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., brought on behalf of recipients of publicly funded housing vouchers whose SafeRent Score was below the minimum for an "accept" report on an application for rental housing in Massachusetts.

You received this notice because, according to SafeRent's records, you applied for housing in Massachusetts between May 25, 2020 and [DATE], and the housing provider received a SafeRent Score below the "accept" score set by the housing provider, and therefore you may be a member of the group of people affected, called the "class." You are only a member of the class if you were applying for rental housing in Massachusetts where you could use your voucher when your rental application was denied.

This notice gives you a summary of the terms of the proposed settlement agreement, explains what rights class members have, and helps class members make informed decisions about what action to take.

This is an important legal document, and we recommend that you read all of it. If you have questions or need assistance, please go to www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com or call [phone number].

Learning About the Lawsuit

What is this lawsuit about?

Mary Louis and Monica Douglas filed a lawsuit in 2022 claiming that SafeRent violated fair housing and consumer protection laws by using its SafeRent Score product to make rental housing decisions for applicants in Massachusetts holding public housing vouchers.

Where can I learn more?
You can get a complete copy of the proposed settlement and other key documents in this lawsuit by visiting: www.MATenantScreening

SafeRent denies that it did anything wrong, violated any law, or that the claims have merit.

Why is there a settlement in this lawsuit?

The Court has not decided this case in favor of either side. The parties agreed to settle, which means they have reached an agreement to resolve the lawsuit. Both sides want to avoid the risk and expense of further litigation. The settlement will resolve the claims of all members of the settlement classes, including the plaintiffs who brought the case.

What is a class action settlement?
A class action settlement is the resolution of a case for all of the affected persons in the class. It can provide money and changes to the practices that the plaintiffs claim caused harm in the first place.

What happens next in this lawsuit?

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. The hearing will be held at:

Where:

John Joseph Moakley U.S. Courthouse
1 Courthouse Way, Suite 2300
Courtroom 8, Third Floor
Boston, Massachusetts 02210

When: [time] on [date].

The Court has approved this notice of settlement. Because the settlement of a class action affects the rights of all members of the proposed classes, the Court must give final approval to the settlement before it can take effect. Payments will only be made if the Court approves the settlement.

You don't have to attend the hearing, but you may at your own expense. You may also ask the Court for permission to speak and express your opinion about the settlement. If the Court does not approve the settlement or the parties decide to end it, it will be void and the lawsuit will continue. The date or time of the hearing may change, and if it does, the new date or time of the hearing will be posted on the settlement website, but there will be no additional mailed notice. To learn more and confirm the hearing date, go to www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com or call [phone number].

Learning About the Settlement

What does the settlement provide?

SafeRent has agreed to pay $1,175,000 into a settlement fund. This money will be divided among the class members and will also be used to pay the cost of administering this settlement (expected to be between $110,000 and $135,000). Subject to court approval, this fund may also be used to provide up to $10,000 each to the two people who brought this lawsuit, Mary Louis and Monica Douglas. Members of the settlement class will "release" their claims as part of the settlement, which means they cannot sue SafeRent based on the same conduct that led to this lawsuit. The full terms of the release can be found at www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com.

The settlement separately provides up to $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees and costs, dependent on court approval. If the court does not award the full $1,100,000, any money left over will be added to the settlement fund and distributed to class members.

The settlement also requires SafeRent to make changes to the reports that housing providers can request, so that it will not provide a SafeRent Score for applicants who the housing provider reports are applying using a housing voucher.

How do I know if I am part of this settlement?

You are a class member and part of this settlement if:

(1) you were a rental applicant who used a publicly funded housing voucher and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of your SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and [date of preliminary approval order]. This is called the "Income-Based Settlement Class," OR

(2) you are Black or Hispanic and a rental applicant who used a publicly funded housing voucher and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of your SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and [date of preliminary approval order]. This is called the "Race-Based Settlement Class."

In plain language, if you were sent this notice by the Settlement Administrator, and you tried to use a housing voucher to get housing between May 25, 2020 and [date of preliminary approval order], then you are likely covered by this settlement. That is because SafeRent's records show that a housing provider where you applied for housing in Massachusetts received a SafeRent Score that was below the "accept" score set by the housing provider.

If you are unsure of whether you are part of this settlement, contact the Settlement Administrator at [phone number] or [email address].

How much will my payment be?

Your payment amount will depend on several factors:

- The payment amounts will depend on the number of class members who submit valid claims.
- Those who are members of both the Income-Based Settlement Class and the Race-Based Settlement Class will receive a share of the settlement that is 1.5 times the share for those who are members of only one of the settlement classes.
- The payment amounts will also depend on the amount of awards and costs approved by the Court.

Deciding What You Want to Do

How do I weigh my options?

If you are a class member, as defined above, you have four options. You can stay in the settlement and take action to receive payment, you can opt out of the settlement, you can object to the settlement, or you can do nothing. This chart shows the effects of each option:

	do nothing	file a claim	opt out	object
Can I receive settlement money if I . . .	NO	YES	NO	YES
Am I bound by the terms of this lawsuit if I . . .	YES	YES	NO	YES

Can I pursue my own case if I . . .	NO	NO	YES	NO
Will the class lawyers represent me if I . . .	YES	YES	NO	NO

Doing Nothing

What are the consequences of doing nothing?

If you are a class member and you do nothing before [date], you will not get any money, but you will still be bound by the settlement and its "release" provisions. That means you won't be able to start, continue, or be part of any other lawsuit against SafeRent based on the same conduct that led to this lawsuit. Please see the settlement agreement, which can be found at www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com, for a full description of the claims and persons who will be released if this settlement is approved.

Filing a Claim

How do I get a payment if I am a class member?

If you wish to receive money, you must submit a Claim Form by [90 days after notice is mailed].

The Claim Form is attached to this Notice and is available online at www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com. Follow the instructions on the form to submit. The form may be submitted by mail or electronically.

Do I have a lawyer in this lawsuit?

In a class action, the court appoints class representatives and lawyers—called Class Counsel—to work on the case and defend the interests of the class members. If you want to be represented by your own attorney, you may hire one at your own expense. For this settlement, the Court has appointed the following individuals and lawyers.

Class Representatives: Mary Louis and Monica Douglas

Class Counsel: Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, Greater Boston Legal Services, and the National Consumer Law Center. These are the entities that negotiated this settlement on your behalf. Their contact information is below.

Do I have to pay the lawyers in this lawsuit?

You will not have to pay the lawyers directly. Attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the Court will be paid by SafeRent, separately from the settlement fund used to pay out class members' claims.

To date, Class Counsel have not been paid any money for their work or out-of-pocket expenses in this case. To pay for some of their time and risk in bringing this case without any guarantee of payment unless they were successful, Class Counsel have requested that the Court approve a payment from SafeRent to them of up to $1,100,000 total in attorneys' fees and expenses. Attorneys' fees and expenses will only be awarded if approved by the Court as a fair and reasonable amount. Any unawarded fees out of the $1,100,000 will be added to the Settlement Fund disbursed to class members. You have the right to object to the attorneys' fees even if you think the other settlement terms are fair.

Opting Out

What if I don't want to be part of this settlement?

You can opt out. If you do, you will not receive payment and cannot object to the settlement. However, you will not be bound or affected by anything that happens in this lawsuit and will keep any right you have to file your own case.

How do I opt out?

To opt out of the settlement, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator that:

(1) is postmarked by [90 days after notice is mailed];
(2) includes the case name and number (Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10800);

(3) includes your full name and contact information (telephone number, email, and/or mailing address);
(4) states clearly that you wish to be excluded from the settlement; and
(5) includes your signature.

Mail the letter to the following address:

Settlement Administrator
[insert address]
[insert phone number]

Objecting

What if I disagree with the settlement?

If you disagree with any part of the settlement (including the attorneys' fees) but don't want to opt out, you may object to the settlement. You must give reasons why you think the Court should not approve the settlement and say whether your objection applies to just you, a part of the class, or the entire class. The Court will consider your views. The Court can only approve or deny the settlement as is—it cannot change the terms of the settlement. You may, but don't need to, hire your own lawyer to help you. If you choose to hire your own lawyer, you will do so at your expense.

To object, you must send a letter to the Court that:

(1) is postmarked by [90 days after notice];
(2) includes the case name and number (Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10800).
(3) includes your full name, address and telephone number, and email address (if you have one);
(4) states the reasons for your objection;
(5) says whether either you or your counsel intend to appear at the final approval hearing and your counsel's name; and
(6) includes your signature.

Mail the letter to both of the following two places:

Settlement Administrator [insert address] [insert phone number]	U.S. District Court for Massachusetts John Joseph Moakley U.S. Courthouse 1 Courthouse Way, Suite 2300 Boston, Massachusetts 02210

v.

SAFERENT SOLUTIONS, LLC AND METROPOLITAN MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:22-CV-10800-AK

DECLARATION OF HON. DIANE M. WELSH (RET.) IN SUPPORT OF PROPOSED CLASS SETTLEMENT AND MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND EXPENSES

I, Diane M. Welsh, declare that the following is true and correct:

1. I am a competent adult, over the age of 18, and have personal knowledge of the facts and information set forth herein.

2. I served as a Magistrate Judge in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania from 1994 to 2005. Thereafter, I became a mediator with JAMS. With 30 years of experience as both a JAMS neutral and a United States Magistrate Judge, I have presided over the successful resolution of over 5,000 matters, including many class actions. A copy of my curriculum vitae is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

3. I submit this Declaration in my capacity as the mediator of a proposed class settlement of the above-captioned class action brought by Plaintiffs Mary Louis and Monica Douglas ("Plaintiffs") against SafeRent Solutions, LLC ("SafeRent" or "Defendant"). As will be described in more detail below, the negotiations between the parties were extensive, hard fought, conducted at arm's length, and were performed in good faith without collusion or other improper conduct.

4. I was engaged by the parties in this case through JAMS to serve as a neutral mediator in this case. A formal mediation session was scheduled for November 6, 2023. At my request, the parties exchanged detailed mediation statements in advance of the mediation session. Their submissions addressed the factual issues in the case, key legal issues, and the parties' settlement positions. I closely reviewed the mediation statements and supporting materials and became familiar with the nature of the claims and defenses asserted.

5. I facilitated the November 6, 2023, mediation session, which lasted approximately eight (8) hours. Throughout the day, I conducted joint sessions with all participants, as well as breakout sessions with counsel for Plaintiffs and SafeRent individually. There were extensive discussions of the strengths and weaknesses of the parties' respective positions concerning the merits, damages, and possible resolution. Both sides vigorously advocated for the interests of their respective clients.

6. Although the parties were very far apart at the outset of the mediation sessions, they made considerable progress towards a meaningful resolution and were able to reach a settlement in principle regarding injunctive relief by the end of the first session. The parties also agreed to continue discussions regarding monetary relief.

7. Further, after the mediation session, the parties engaged my assistance via e-mail and telephonic conference to help mediate and decide a number of remaining settlement details, including, but not limited to, negotiations as to monetary relief and, subsequently, attorneys' fees. These post-mediation session discussions continued for approximately seven weeks.

8. The negotiations also entailed considerable back-and-forth between the parties regarding numerous offers and demands. Throughout the mediation process, the parties engaged in extensive adversarial negotiations. The facilitated negotiations were lengthy, principled, exhaustive, informed, and sometimes contentious, but always professional. Based on my involvement in the parties' mediation efforts, I can say that the negotiations appeared to be fair, at arms' length, and in good faith. I have no cause to believe that there was any kind of improper collusion between the parties.

9. As part of the post-mediation discussions, SafeRent provided to me and to Class Counsel additional confidential mediation information and documents. Based on my review and conversations with the parties, I believe the monetary relief obtained by Plaintiffs for the class through this settlement is fair and reasonable.

10. In my opinion, the proposed Settlement Agreement was the result of arm's-length negotiations between highly capable, experienced, and informed counsel. The Settlement Agreement resulted from counsel's efforts after thoroughly investigating the case, considering the risks, strengths, and weaknesses of their respective positions on substantive issues, the risks, burdens, delays and costs of continued litigation, and the best interests of their respective clients.

11. The negotiations involved highly qualified attorneys with extensive expertise in complex class actions in general, and consumer and fair housing law in particular. At all times, Class Counsel zealously represented the proposed classes. They passionately expressed a desire for the settlement to provide meaningful benefits, both monetary and nonmonetary, to the classes, while at the same time recognizing the significant risks they faced if they proceeded with the litigation, as well as the substantial costs to pursue the matter through discovery, summary judgment, trial, and appeal.

12. I believe the proposed Settlement Agreement reflects the risks and potential rewards of the claims being settled. Although the Court will need to make its own determination as to the proposed Settlement's fairness under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2), I can say that, from an experienced mediator's perspective, the negotiated Settlement Agreement produced by the mediation process represents a thorough, deliberative, and comprehensive resolution that will benefit class members through meaningful monetary relief and avoids the considerable risks and costs inherent in class action litigation.

13. Class Counsel undertook extensive efforts to achieve the Settlement in this Action, which involved a plethora of complex legal and factual issues related to the calculation of the SafeRent Score and the impact of the Score on the proposed classes. Specifically, to litigate this Action, Class Counsel informed me they: (1) extensively investigated the claims for nearly a year before filing suit; (2) filed both the initial complaint and the operative First Amended Complaint (ECF No. 15); (3) successfully defeated in part SafeRent's motion to dismiss; (4) undertook informal discovery in preparation for mediation; (5) consulted with experts on analyzing algorithms and disparate impact, both before and after mediation; (6) drafted a detailed mediation statement; (7) attended a full-day mediation; (8) engaged in substantial negotiations following mediation, with my assistance; and (9) documented and sought the Court's approval of the Settlement.

14. I believe that Class Counsel's request for $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees and expenses, as contemplated by the parties' Settlement Agreement, is reasonable and supported based on the complexity of this action, the substantial effort that Class Counsel skillfully expended over the course of this litigation, and the likelihood of recovery through litigation.

15. Class Counsel has represented to me that they expended 2079.42 hours as of March 15, 2024, amounting to a lodestar of $1,334,152.20, over the course of this litigation.

These figures make sense to me based on the substantial effort that Class Counsel undertook in the steps described above.

16. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

Executed on March 27, 2024

- Leading Litigator

"She is a superb settler of cases. She is tenacious, persistent, and imaginative."
- Almanac of the Federal Judiciary

Hon. Diane M. Welsh (Ret.) is highly respected for her ability to successfully resolve disputes with sensitivity, patience, and persistence. Over the past 27 years, as a JAMS neutral and a United States Magistrate Judge, she has successfully resolved over 5000 matters, covering virtually every type of complex dispute. Specifically, Judge Welsh has extraordinary skill in resolving high-stakes multi-party commercial disputes, employment matters, catastrophic personal injury cases, class actions, mass torts and multi-district litigations (MDL's). She was recognized as a 2016-2018 "ADR Champion" by the National Law Journal, and in the 2022 and 2023 edition of Chambers USA for Mediators (USA – Nationwide) and for Chambers USA 2023 Litigation: Mediators (Pennsylvania).
Class Actions, Mass Torts, and MDLs

Judge Welsh is nationally recognized for her work as a neutral and Special Master in complex class actions, mass torts, and multi-district litigations (MDLs). Select examples of this work include:

- Appointed Settlement Mediator for the highly publicized multidistrict litigation involving hundreds of consumer lawsuits against Philips for its recall of millions of C-PAP breathing devices. Judge Welsh's brokered settlement resulted in Philips agreeing to pay $479M to resolve the economic claims and to reimburse consumers for device purchases, rentals, and other out-of-pocket costs plus an additional $95M in attorneys' fees.
- Appointed Special Master of the Amtrak Train Derailment Settlement Program related to the 2015 derailment of a Philadelphia passenger train. The program will distribute $265m in claims arising from the incident.
- Mediated settlement of class action lawsuit against T-Mobile stemming from its 2021 data breach involving personal information of 76.6M U.S. residents, T-Mobile's fifth breach in four-years. Allegations included T-Mobile failed to properly protect personal information, had inadequate data security, and violated certain state consumer statutes and other laws. T-Mobile denied these allegations and did not admit liability in the proposed settlement requiring T-Mobile to pay $500M on customers' claims and bolster cybersecurity practices.
- Mediated case involving large financial services corporation over its handling of data security breaches and alleged failure to wipe personal identifiable information data (PII) before decommissioning and reselling computer equipment on which the data was stored for 15M+ customers and former customers. While continuing discovery in the case, both parties agreed to mediate the claims and engaged Welsh who, over a five-month period, helped the parties achieve a $60M settlement providing both monetary and equitable relief for plaintiffs, including fraud insurance coverage and out-of-pocket cost reimbursement associated with remedying the breach.
- Class action involving claims under NY and NJ consumer protection laws. The certified classes comprise NY and NJ consumers that updated their phones during an upgrade. Class asserted that the upgrade significantly diminished phone performance. Although denying wrongdoing, defendant is entering into settlement to avoid burdensome and costly litigation. Total compensation is capped at $20M.
- Successfully mediated case involving claims of antitrust conspiracy where plaintiffs allege that three trading firms and their warehouse affiliates ("defendants") conspired to hoard aluminum and engage in other anticompetitive behavior to restrict supply, inflate all-in aluminum prices and regional premiums, and provided inefficient, low-quality load-out and other services. Judge Welsh successfully resolved the dispute with a $37M settlement.
- Successful mediation in the multi-district litigation, Wright Medical Technology, Inc. Conserve Hip Implant Products Liability Litigation.
- Mediated a global settlement of the state and federal products liability proceedings brought against Stryker Orthopedics -- In re: HOC Rejuvenate and ABG II Hip Implant Products Liability Litigation, a federal multi-district litigation venued in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, and In re: HOC Rejuvenate Hip Stem and ABG II Modular Hip Stem Litigation Case, a New Jersey state multi-county litigation venued in Bergen County, New Jersey. Prior to mediating the global settlement, between 2013 and June 2014, Judge Welsh mediated more than 20 bellwether cases in the New Jersey multi-county litigation. Ninety-five percent of registered eligible patients have enrolled in the settlement program under the master settlement agreement. She currently serves as Claims Administrator overseeing the implementation of the settlement and continues to mediate opt-out cases.

About This Notice

Why did I get this notice?

This notice is to tell you about the settlement of a class action lawsuit, Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., brought on behalf of recipients of publicly funded housing vouchers whose SafeRent Score was below the minimum for an "accept" report on an application for rental housing in Massachusetts.

You received this notice because, according to SafeRent's records, you applied for housing in Massachusetts between May 25, 2020 and [DATE], and the housing provider received a SafeRent Score below the "accept" score set by the housing provider, and therefore you may be a member of the group of people affected, called the "class." You are only a member of the class if you were applying for rental housing in Massachusetts where you could use your voucher when your rental application was denied.

This notice gives you a summary of the terms of the proposed settlement agreement, explains what rights class members have, and helps class members make informed decisions about what action to take.

This is an important legal document, and we recommend that you read all of it. If you have questions or need assistance, please go to www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com or call [phone number].

Learning About the Lawsuit

What is this lawsuit about?

Mary Louis and Monica Douglas filed a lawsuit in 2022 claiming that SafeRent violated fair housing and consumer protection laws by using its SafeRent Score product to make rental housing decisions for applicants in Massachusetts holding public housing vouchers.

Where can I learn more?
You can get a complete copy of the proposed settlement and other key documents in this lawsuit by visiting: www.MATenantScreening

SafeRent denies that it did anything wrong, violated any law, or that the claims have merit.

Why is there a settlement in this lawsuit?

The Court has not decided this case in favor of either side. The parties agreed to settle, which means they have reached an agreement to resolve the lawsuit. Both sides want to avoid the risk and expense of further litigation. The settlement will resolve the claims of all members of the settlement classes, including the plaintiffs who brought the case.

What is a class action settlement?
A class action settlement is the resolution of a case for all of the affected persons in the class. It can provide money and changes to the practices that the plaintiffs claim caused harm in the first place.

What happens next in this lawsuit?

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. The hearing will be held at:

Where:

John Joseph Moakley U.S. Courthouse
1 Courthouse Way, Suite 2300
Courtroom 8, Third Floor
Boston, Massachusetts 02210

When: [time] on [date].

The Court has approved this notice of settlement. Because the settlement of a class action affects the rights of all members of the proposed classes, the Court must give final approval to the settlement before it can take effect. Payments will only be made if the Court approves the settlement.

You don't have to attend the hearing, but you may at your own expense. You may also ask the Court for permission to speak and express your opinion about the settlement. If the Court does not approve the settlement or the parties decide to end it, it will be void and the lawsuit will continue. The date or time of the hearing may change, and if it does, the new date or time of the hearing will be posted on the settlement website, but there will be no additional mailed notice. To learn more and confirm the hearing date, go to www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com or call [phone number].

Learning About the Settlement

What does the settlement provide?

SafeRent has agreed to pay $1,175,000 into a settlement fund. This money will be divided among the class members and will also be used to pay the cost of administering this settlement (expected to be between $110,000 and $135,000). Subject to court approval, this fund may also be used to provide up to $10,000 each to the two people who brought this lawsuit, Mary Louis and Monica Douglas. Members of the settlement class will "release" their claims as part of the settlement, which means they cannot sue SafeRent based on the same conduct that led to this lawsuit. The full terms of the release can be found at www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com.

The settlement separately provides up to $1,100,000 in attorneys' fees and costs, dependent on court approval. If the court does not award the full $1,100,000, any money left over will be added to the settlement fund and distributed to class members.

The settlement also requires SafeRent to make changes to the reports that housing providers can request, so that it will not provide a SafeRent Score for applicants who the housing provider reports are applying using a housing voucher.

How do I know if I am part of this settlement?

You are a class member and part of this settlement if:

(1) you were a rental applicant who used a publicly funded housing voucher and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of your SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and [date of preliminary approval order]. This is called the "Income-Based Settlement Class," OR

(2) you are Black or Hispanic and a rental applicant who used a publicly funded housing voucher and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of your SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and [date of preliminary approval order]. This is called the "Race-Based Settlement Class."

In plain language, if you were sent this notice by the Settlement Administrator, and you tried to use a housing voucher to get housing between May 25, 2020 and [date of preliminary approval order], then you are likely covered by this settlement. That is because SafeRent's records show that a housing provider where you applied for housing in Massachusetts received a SafeRent Score that was below the "accept" score set by the housing provider.

If you are unsure of whether you are part of this settlement, contact the Settlement Administrator at [phone number] or [email address].

How much will my payment be?

Your payment amount will depend on several factors:

- The payment amounts will depend on the number of class members who submit valid claims.
- Those who are members of both the Income-Based Settlement Class and the Race-Based Settlement Class will receive a share of the settlement that is 1.5 times the share for those who are members of only one of the settlement classes.
- The payment amounts will also depend on the amount of awards and costs approved by the Court.

Deciding What You Want to Do

How do I weigh my options?

If you are a class member, as defined above, you have four options. You can stay in the settlement and take action to receive payment, you can opt out of the settlement, you can object to the settlement, or you can do nothing. This chart shows the effects of each option:

	do nothing	file a claim	opt out	object
Can I receive settlement money if I . . .	NO	YES	NO	YES
Am I bound by the terms of this lawsuit if I . . .	YES	YES	NO	YES

Can I pursue my own case if I . . .	NO	NO	YES	NO
Will the class lawyers represent me if I . . .	YES	YES	NO	NO

Doing Nothing

What are the consequences of doing nothing?

If you are a class member and you do nothing before [date], you will not get any money, but you will still be bound by the settlement and its "release" provisions. That means you won't be able to start, continue, or be part of any other lawsuit against SafeRent based on the same conduct that led to this lawsuit. Please see the settlement agreement, which can be found at www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com, for a full description of the claims and persons who will be released if this settlement is approved.

Filing a Claim

How do I get a payment if I am a class member?

If you wish to receive money, you must submit a Claim Form by [90 days after notice is mailed].

The Claim Form is attached to this Notice and is available online at www.MATenantScreeningSettlement.com. Follow the instructions on the form to submit. The form may be submitted by mail or electronically.

Do I have a lawyer in this lawsuit?

In a class action, the court appoints class representatives and lawyers—called Class Counsel—to work on the case and defend the interests of the class members. If you want to be represented by your own attorney, you may hire one at your own expense. For this settlement, the Court has appointed the following individuals and lawyers.

Class Representatives: Mary Louis and Monica Douglas

Class Counsel: Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, Greater Boston Legal Services, and the National Consumer Law Center. These are the entities that negotiated this settlement on your behalf. Their contact information is below.

Do I have to pay the lawyers in this lawsuit?

You will not have to pay the lawyers directly. Attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the Court will be paid by SafeRent, separately from the settlement fund used to pay out class members' claims.

To date, Class Counsel have not been paid any money for their work or out-of-pocket expenses in this case. To pay for some of their time and risk in bringing this case without any guarantee of payment unless they were successful, Class Counsel have requested that the Court approve a payment from SafeRent to them of up to $1,100,000 total in attorneys' fees and expenses. Attorneys' fees and expenses will only be awarded if approved by the Court as a fair and reasonable amount. Any unawarded fees out of the $1,100,000 will be added to the Settlement Fund disbursed to class members. You have the right to object to the attorneys' fees even if you think the other settlement terms are fair.

Opting Out

What if I don't want to be part of this settlement?

You can opt out. If you do, you will not receive payment and cannot object to the settlement. However, you will not be bound or affected by anything that happens in this lawsuit and will keep any right you have to file your own case.

How do I opt out?

To opt out of the settlement, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator that:

(1) is postmarked by [90 days after notice is mailed];
(2) includes the case name and number (Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10800);

(3) includes your full name and contact information (telephone number, email, and/or mailing address);
(4) states clearly that you wish to be excluded from the settlement; and
(5) includes your signature.

Mail the letter to the following address:

Objecting

What if I disagree with the settlement?

If you disagree with any part of the settlement (including the attorneys' fees) but don't want to opt out, you may object to the settlement. You must give reasons why you think the Court should not approve the settlement and say whether your objection applies to just you, a part of the class, or the entire class. The Court will consider your views. The Court can only approve or deny the settlement as is—it cannot change the terms of the settlement. You may, but don't need to, hire your own lawyer to help you. If you choose to hire your own lawyer, you will do so at your expense.

To object, you must send a letter to the Court that:

(1) is postmarked by [90 days after notice];
(2) includes the case name and number (Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10800).
(3) includes your full name, address and telephone number, and email address (if you have one);
(4) states the reasons for your objection;
(5) says whether either you or your counsel intend to appear at the final approval hearing and your counsel's name; and
(6) includes your signature.

Mail the letter to both of the following two places:

Plaintiffs,

v.

SAFERENT SOLUTIONS, LLC AND METROPOLITAN MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:22-CV-10800-AK

[PROPOSED] ORDER CERTIFYING THE CLASSES FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES AND DIRECTING NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT TO THE CLASSES

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion to Certify the Classes for Settlement Purposes and Direct Notice to the Settlement Classes (the "Motion"). After review and consideration of the parties' Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release (the "Agreement"), the papers filed in support of the Motion, including the Welsh Declaration and the proposed form of Notice to be disseminated to the Settlement Classes, and all prior proceedings in this action, the Court hereby FINDS, CONCLUDES, and ORDERS as follows:

1. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Agreement.

2. The Court finds that this action is maintainable as a class action because the prerequisites of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) are met, for the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' Memorandum. The Court therefore conditionally certifies, for settlement purposes only, the following "Settlement Classes" as defined in the Agreement:

> All rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class");
> All Black and Hispanic rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class").

3. Certification of the Settlement Classes is for settlement purposes only, and is without prejudice to the parties in the event the Settlement is not finally approved by this Court or does not otherwise take effect.

4. For the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' Memorandum, the Court finds that it will likely be able to approve the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The Court specifically finds that the Settlement is the product of arms' length negotiations between competent counsel, reached with the aid of an experienced professional mediator, and comes after adequate investigation of the facts and legal issues by Plaintiffs and Defendant SafeRent. The Court further preliminarily finds that the relief provided in the Settlement to the Settlement Classes is adequate, taking into account, among other things, the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal, and the proposed method of distributing compensation to the Settlement Classes; and that the Settlement treats Settlement Class Members equitably relative to one another.

5. The Court finds that Mary Louis and Monica Douglas have adequately represented and will continue to adequately represent the Settlement Classes, and therefore appoints Ms. Louis and Ms. Douglas as the Settlement Class Representatives for both Settlement Classes.

6. The Court finds that Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, Greater Boston Legal Services, and the National Consumer Law Center have adequately represented, and will continue to adequately represent the Settlement Classes, and therefore appoints those law offices as Settlement Class Counsel.

7. The Court appoints Epiq as Settlement Administrator and directs Epiq to carry out all of the duties and responsibilities of Settlement Administrator as specified in the Agreement and this Order. All reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the Settlement Administrator will be paid exclusively as set forth in the Agreement.

8. The Court finds that there are grounds to issue Notice to all Settlement Class Members. The Court has reviewed the proposed Notice and the proposed method for distributing the Notice and concludes that such Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances to the Settlement Classes and satisfies Rule 23(e) and due process, including by providing Settlement Class Members with sufficient information to enable them to make informed decisions as to the right to object or opt out of the Settlement, and hereby orders Settlement Class Counsel, SafeRent, and the Settlement Administrator to effectuate Notice of the Settlement as set forth in Section 4.2 of the Agreement.

9. The Court orders SafeRent to provide the names and, if reasonably available to SafeRent, the full or partial Social Security numbers, last known addresses, emails, and telephone numbers of all applicants for housing in Massachusetts who SafeRent assigned a SafeRent Score and, on the basis of that SafeRent Score and the threshold that the housing provider had set, recommended “decline” or “accept with conditions” on an application, between

May 25, 2020 and the date of entry of this Order.

10. The parties may hereafter agree to non-material changes to the notice plan, including to the form and content of the Notice, without seeking further approval of the Court.

11. The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) on November 18, 2024 at the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts for the following purposes:

a. To determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be granted final approval by the Court;

b. To determine whether a final judgment should be entered dismissing the claims of the Settlement Classes with prejudice, as required by the Settlement;

c. To consider the application by Settlement Class Counsel for an award of attorney's fees and costs, and the application for service awards to the Settlement Class Representatives; and

d. To rule upon other such matters as the Court may deem appropriate.

This date, time, and place of the Final Approval Hearing shall be included in the settlement Notice to the Settlement Classes. If, however, the date and/or time of Final Approval Hearing is changed, notice of the change need only be posted by the Court on the case docket and by the Settlement Administrator on its case-related website.

12. If a Settlement Class Member chooses to opt out of the settlement, that Settlement Class Member is required to submit a request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator that complies with the provisions set forth in Section 4.4 of the Agreement. The request for exclusion must be postmarked on or before the Exclusion/Objection Deadline, i.e., no later than ninety (90) days after Notice is disseminated. To be effective, the request for exclusion must include (a) the Settlement Class Member's full name, telephone number, and mailing address; (b) a clear and unequivocal statement that the Settlement Class Member wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Classes; (c) an unequivocal reference by name of the Litigation, e.g., "Louis v. SafeRent, Case No. 1:22-cv-10800"; and (d) the Settlement Class Member's signature or the signature or affirmation of an individual authorized to act on the Settlement Class Member's behalf.

13. Upon the Settlement Administrator's receipt of a timely and valid exclusion request, the Settlement Class Member shall be deemed excluded from the Settlement Classes and shall not be entitled to any benefits of the Settlement. A Settlement Class Member may request to be excluded from the Settlement only on the Settlement Class Member's own behalf; a Settlement Class Member may not request that other Settlement Class Members (or a group or subclass of Settlement Class Members) be excluded from the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall provide copies of all timely and valid exclusion requests to Settlement Class Counsel and SafeRent Counsel.

14. Any Class Member who wishes to be heard at the Final Approval Hearing, and/or who wishes for any objection to be considered, must comply with the objection provisions set forth in Section 4.6 of the Agreement. Any Settlement Class Member who wishes to object to the proposed Settlement must file or send to the Court a written objection that is postmarked or filed no later than the Exclusion/Objection Deadline, i.e., no later than ninety (90) days after the Notice is first mailed. To be effective, an objection must (a) include an unequivocal reference to the case name and number of the Litigation, e.g., "Louis v. SafeRent, Case No. 1:22-cv-10800"; (b) contain the full name, mailing address, and telephone number of the Settlement Class Member objecting to the Settlement (the "Objector"); (c) include the Objector's signature or the signature or affirmation of an individual authorized to act on the Objector's behalf; (d) state with specificity the grounds for the objection; (e) state whether the objection applies only to the Objector, to a specific subset of the class, or to the entire class; (f) contain the name, address, bar number, and telephone number of counsel for the Objector, if represented or counseled in any degree by an attorney in connection with the objection; and (g) state whether the Objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either personally or through counsel.

15. If the Objector or the Objector's attorney intends to call witnesses or present evidence at the Final Approval Hearing, the objection must in addition to the requirements above contain the following information: (a) a list identifying all witnesses whom the Objector may call at the Final Approval Hearing and all known addresses and phone numbers for each witness, together with a reasonably detailed report of the testimony the witness will offer at the hearing; and (b) a detailed description of all other evidence the Objector will offer at the Final Approval Hearing, including copies of any and all exhibits that the Objector may introduce at the Final Approval Hearing. To the extent any Settlement Class Member objects to the proposed Settlement and such objection is overruled in whole or in part, such Settlement Class Member will be forever bound by the Final Approval Order and accompanying Judgment.

16. Settlement Class Counsel or SafeRent Counsel may notice the deposition of the Objector and seek the production of documents and tangible things relevant to the Objector's objection on an expedited basis. Any objections to the scope of a deposition notice or a request to produce documents or other tangible things issued or served in connection with this provision shall be brought before the Court for resolution on an expedited basis.

17. Unless the Court directs otherwise, any Settlement Class Member who fails to comply with the provisions of the Settlement or this Order will waive and forfeit any and all rights he, she, or it may have to object to the Settlement and/or to appear and be heard on said objection at the Final Approval Hearing. Failure to object waives a Settlement Class Member's right to appeal the Final Approval Order.

18. Other than such proceeding as are necessary to carry out the terms of the Settlement and this Order, all other deadlines set in this Action involving claims between the parties to the Settlement shall be suspended and all proceedings in this Action other than to effectuate the Settlement shall be stayed.

19. If the Court for any reason does not finally approve the Settlement or enter Judgment, or if any other order necessary to effectuate the Settlement is denied, or if the Court or a reviewing court takes any action to impair or reduce the scope or effectiveness of the Releases set forth in the Agreement or to impose greater or lesser financial or other burdens on SafeRent than those contemplated in the Agreement, then the Settlement shall be void ab initio. SafeRent shall also have the right to terminate the Settlement if the number of timely and valid opt-outs exceeds fifty (50).

20. This Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement, and all negotiations, statements, agreements, and proceedings relating to the Settlement shall not constitute or be offered or received against SafeRent or the other Released Parties as evidence of an admission of the truth of any fact alleged by any Plaintiff in this action or any liability, fault, or wrongdoing of SafeRent or the Released Parties; or that this or any other action may be properly certified as a class action for litigation, non-settlement purposes.

21. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over this action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Settlement.

22. The Court may, for good cause, extend any of the deadlines set forth in this Preliminary Approval Order or the Settlement. If a deadline is extended under this provision, notice of the change need only be posted by the Court on the case docket and by the Settlement Administrator on the Settlement Website. The following chart summarizes the dates and deadlines currently set by this Preliminary Approval Order:

DECLARATION OF CAMERON R. AZARI, ESQ. REGARDING NOTICE PROGRAM

I, Cameron R. Azari, Esq., hereby declare and state as follows:

1. My name is Cameron R. Azari, Esq. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein, and I believe them to be true and correct.

2. I am a nationally recognized expert in the field of legal notice and have served as an expert in hundreds of federal and state cases involving class action notice plans.

3. I am a Senior Vice President of Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc. ("Epiq") and the Director of Legal Notice for Hilsoft Notifications, a firm that specializes in designing, developing, analyzing, and implementing large-scale, un-biased, legal notification plans. Hilsoft Notifications is a business unit of Epiq.

4. Epiq is an industry leader in class action administration, having implemented more than a thousand successful class action notice and settlement administration matters. Epiq has been involved with some of the most complex and significant notice programs in recent history, examples of which are discussed below. My team and I have experience with legal noticing in more than 575 cases, including more than 70 multidistrict litigation settlements, and have prepared notices which have appeared in 53 languages and been distributed in almost every country, territory, and dependency in the world. Courts have recognized and approved numerous notice plans developed by Epiq, and those decisions have invariably withstood appellate and collateral review.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

5. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in many significant cases, including:

a) In Re: Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, 3:20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.), involved an extensive notice plan for a $85 million privacy settlement involving Zoom, the most popular videoconferencing platform. Notice was sent to more than 158 million class members by email or mail and millions of reminder notices were sent to stimulate claim filings. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 91% of the class and were enhanced by supplemental media, which was provided with regional newspaper notice, nationally distributed digital and social media notice (delivering more than 280 million impressions), sponsored search, an informational release, and a settlement website.

b) In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2599, 1:15-md-02599 (S.D. Fla.), involved $1.91 billion in settlements with BMW, Mazda, Subaru, Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Ford, and Volkswagen regarding Takata airbags. The notice plans for those settlements included individual mailed notice to more than 61.8 million potential class members and extensive nationwide media via consumer publications, U.S. Territory newspapers, radio, internet banners, mobile banners, and behaviorally targeted digital media. Combined, the notice plans reached more than 95% of adults aged 18+ in the U.S. who owned or leased a subject vehicle, with a frequency of 4.0 times each.

c) In Re: Capital One Consumer Data Security Breach Litigation, MDL No. 2915, 1:19-md-02915 (E.D. Va.), involved an extensive notice program for a $190 million data breach settlement. Notice was sent to more than 93.6 million settlement class members by email or mail. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 96% of the identified settlement class members and were enhanced by a supplemental media plan that included banner notices and social media notices (delivering more than 123.4 million impressions), sponsored search, and a settlement website.

d) In re: Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation, 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla), involved several notice programs to notify retail purchasers of disposable contact lenses regarding four settlements with different settling defendants totaling $88 million. For each notice program more than 1.98 million email or postcard notices were sent to potential class members and a comprehensive media plan was implemented, with a well-read nationwide consumer publication, internet banner notices (delivering more than 312.9 million – 461.4 million impressions per campaign), sponsored search listings, and a case website.

e) In re: Fairlife Milk Products Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, 1:19-cv-03924 (N.D. Ill.), for a $21 million settlement that involved The Coca-Cola Company, fairlife, LLC, and other defendants regarding allegations of false labeling and marketing of fairlife milk products, a comprehensive media-based notice plan was designed and implemented. The plan included a consumer print publication notice, targeted banner notices, and social media (delivering more than 620.1 million impressions in English and Spanish nationwide). Combined with individual notice to a small percentage of the class, the notice plan reached approximately 80.2% of the class. The reach was further enhanced by sponsored search, an informational release, and a website.

f) In re Morgan Stanley Data Security Litigation, 1:20-cv-05914 (S.D.N.Y.), involved a $60 million settlement for Morgan Stanley Smith Barney's account holders in response to "Data Security Incidents." More than 13.8 million email or mailed notices were delivered, reaching approximately 90% of the identified potential settlement class members. The individual notice efforts were supplemented with nationwide newspaper notice and a settlement website.

g) In re: Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1720 (E.D.N.Y.), involved a $5.5 billion settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard. An intensive notice program included more than 19.8 million direct mail notices sent to potential class members, together with insertions in over 1,500 newspapers, consumer magazines, national business publications, trade and specialty publications, with notices in multiple languages, and an extensive online notice campaign featuring banner notices that generated more than 770 million adult impressions. Sponsored search listings and a settlement website in eight languages expanded the notice program. For the subsequent settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard, an extensive notice program was implemented, which included over 16.3 million direct mail notices to class members together with more than 354 print publication insertions and banner notices, which generated more than 689 million adult impressions. The Second Circuit recently affirmed the settlement approval. See No. 20-339 et al., — F.4th —, 2023 WL 2506455 (2d Cir. Mar. 15, 2023).

h) In re: Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010, MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.), involved landmark settlement notice programs to distinct "Economic and Property Damages" and "Medical Benefits" settlement classes for BP's $7.8 billion settlement of claims related to the Deepwater Horizon oil spill. Notice efforts included more than 7,900 television spots, 5,200 radio spots, and 5,400 print insertions and reached over 95% of Gulf Coast residents.

6. Epiq has handled other cases involving sensitive issues and alleged harms for class members, including the following cases that involved some form of alleged discrimination.

Discrimination Cases	Case No. & Court
Jock et a. v. Sterling Jewelers Inc., involved allegations that Sterling employed pay and promotion practices with the purpose, and which had the effect, of engaging in discrimination on the basis of sex in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5 et seq., 42 U.S.C. § 1981a, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended by the Civil Rights Act of 1991 (Title VII), and the Equal Pay Act, 29 U.S.C. § 206(d)(1) (EPA). The case involved allegations for race discrimination and retaliation brought under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e, et seq. ("Title VII"), and/or 42 U.S.C. § 1981.	1:18-cv-3673 (N.D. Ill.)

7. Courts have recognized our testimony regarding which method of notification is appropriate for a given case, and I have provided testimony on numerous occasions on whether a certain method of notice represents the best notice practicable under the circumstances. Numerous court opinions and comments regarding my testimony and the adequacy of our notice efforts are included in our curriculum vitae, which is included as Attachment 1.

8. In forming expert opinions, my staff and I draw from our in-depth class action case experience, as well as our educational and related work experiences. I am an active member of the Oregon State Bar, having received my Bachelor of Science from Willamette University and my Juris Doctor from Northwestern School of Law at Lewis and Clark College. I have served as the Director of Legal Notice for Epiq since 2008 and have overseen the detailed planning of virtually all of our court-approved notice programs during that time. Overall, I have more than 23 years of experience in the design and implementation of legal notification and claims administration programs, having been personally involved in well over one hundred successful notice programs.

9. The facts in this declaration are based on my personal knowledge, as well as information provided to me by my colleagues in the ordinary course of my business at Epiq.

OVERVIEW

10. This declaration describes the proposed Notice Program ("Notice Program") and notices (the "Notice" or "Notices") for Louis et al. v. SafeRent Solutions, LLC et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10800, pending in United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Epiq designed the proposed Notice Program based on our extensive prior experience and research into the notice issues particular to this case. We have analyzed and proposed the most effective method practicable of providing notice to the Settlement Classes.

When a customer requests that Epiq delete or destroy all data, Epiq agrees to delete or destroy all such data; provided, however, that Epiq may retain data as required by applicable law, rule or regulation, and to the extent such copies are electronically stored in accordance with Epiq's record retention or back-up policies or procedures (including those regarding electronic communications) then in effect. Epiq keeps data in line with client retention requirements. If no retention period is specified, Epiq returns the data to the client or securely deletes it as appropriate.

NOTICE PROGRAM METHODOLOGY

18. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, Rule 23 directs that notice must be "the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort," and that "the notice may be by one or more of the following: United States mail, electronic means, or other appropriate means."[1] The Notice Program will satisfy these requirements.

NOTICE PROGRAM DETAIL

19. The Notice Program is designed to provide notice to the following "Settlement Classes" as defined in the Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release ("Settlement Agreement"):

> Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class
> [A]ll rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2021 and the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order.

[1] Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B).

> Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class
> [A]ll Black and Hispanic rental applicants who used publicly funded housing vouchers and sought but were denied housing in Massachusetts because of their SafeRent Score at any property using SafeRent's tenant screening services between May 25, 2020 and the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order.

20. The Notice Program is designed to reach the greatest practicable number of the Massachusetts Income-Based Settlement Class and the Massachusetts Race-Based Settlement Class ("Settlement Class Members"). Given our experience with similar notice efforts, we expect that the Notice Program individual notice efforts will reach at least 90% of the potential Settlement Class Members. The reach will be further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In my experience, the projected reach of the proposed Notice Program is consistent with other court-approved notice plans, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this case, and has been designed to satisfy the requirements of due process, including its "desire to actually inform" requirement.[2]

NOTICE PROGRAM

Individual Notice

21. It is my understanding from counsel for the parties that Epiq will be provided data from SafeRent's databases for persons who may be Settlement Class Members ("Settlement Class Spreadsheet"). The Settlement Class Spreadsheet will include last known addresses, email addresses (if any), telephone numbers (if any), and potentially other information that was submitted to SafeRent in connection with any application for rental housing in Massachusetts between May 25, 2020, and the date the Court enters an order approving notice to the Settlement Classes, for whom SafeRent generated a SafeRent Score and, on the basis of that SafeRent Score and the threshold that the housing provider set, recommended "decline" or "accept with conditions" on the application. This data will be used to provide individual notice to all potential

[2] Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950) ("But when notice is a person's due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it. The reasonableness and hence the constitutional validity of any chosen method may be defended on the ground that it is in itself reasonably certain to inform those affected . . .").

Settlement Class Members for whom a valid email address and/or physical address and/or a valid telephone number is available.

22. An Email Notice will be sent to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated valid email address, and a printed Notice, Claim Form and Prepaid Return Envelope ("Mail Notice Package") will be sent via United States Postal Service ("USPS") first class mail to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated physical address. If approved by the Court, a Text Notice will be sent to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated valid telephone number. The Notices will clearly describe the case and the legal rights of the Settlement Class Members. In addition, the Notices will direct the recipients to a Settlement Website where they can access additional information.

Individual Notice – Email

23. Epiq will send an Email Notice to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet for whom a valid email address is available. The following industry standard best practices will be followed for the Email Notice efforts. The Email Notice will be drafted in such a way that the subject line, the sender, and the body of the message overcome SPAM filters and ensure readership to the fullest extent reasonably practicable. For instance, the Email Notice will use an embedded html text format. This format will provide easy to read text without graphics, tables, images, attachments, and other elements that would increase the likelihood that the message could be blocked by Internet Service Providers (ISPs) and/or SPAM filters. The Email Notices will be sent from an IP address known to major email providers as one not used to send bulk "SPAM" or "junk" email blasts. Each Email Notice will be transmitted with a digital signature to the header and content of the Email Notice, which will allow ISPs to programmatically authenticate that the Email Notices are from our authorized mail servers. Each Email Notice will also be transmitted with a unique message identifier. The Email Notice will include an embedded link to the Settlement Website. By clicking the link, recipients will be able to access additional information about the case.

24. If the receiving email server cannot deliver the message, a "bounce code" will be returned along with the unique message identifier. For any Email Notice for which a bounce code is received indicating that the message was undeliverable for reasons such as an inactive or disabled account, the recipient's mailbox was full, technical autoreplies, etc., at least two additional attempts will be made to deliver the Notice by email.

Individual Notice – Direct Mail

25. Epiq will send a Mail Notice Package to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated physical address. The Mail Notice Packages will be sent via USPS first-class mail. The printed Notice included in the Mail Notice Package will clearly and concisely summarize the case and the legal rights of the Settlement Class Members. The printed Notice will also direct the recipients to the Settlement Website where they can access additional information about the case. The Mail Notice Package will also include a Claim Form and Prepaid Return Envelope.

26. Prior to sending the Mail Notice Packages, mailing addresses will be checked against the National Change of Address ("NCOA") database maintained by the USPS to ensure address information for persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet is up-to-date and accurately formatted for mailing.[3] In addition, the addresses will be certified via the Coding Accuracy Support System ("CASS") to ensure the quality of the zip code, and will be verified through Delivery Point Validation ("DPV") to verify the accuracy of the addresses. This address updating process is standard for the industry and for the majority of promotional mailings that occur today.

27. The return address on the Mail Notice Packages will be a post office box that Epiq will maintain for this case. The USPS will automatically forward Mail Notice Packages with an available forwarding address order that has not expired ("Postal Forwards"). Mail Notice

[3] The NCOA database is maintained by the USPS and consists of approximately 160 million permanent change-of-address (COA) records consisting of names and addresses of individuals, families, and businesses who have filed a change-of-address with the Postal Service™. The address information is maintained on the database for 48 months and reduces undeliverable mail by providing the most current address information, including standardized and delivery-point-coded addresses, for matches made to the NCOA file for individual, family, and business moves.

Packages returned as undeliverable will be re-mailed to any new address available through USPS information, (for example, to the address provided by the USPS on returned mail pieces for which the automatic forwarding order has expired, but is still within the time period in which the USPS returns the piece with the address indicated), and to better addresses that may be found using a third-party lookup service. Upon successfully locating better addresses, Mail Notice Packages will be promptly remailed.

Individual Notice – Text Notice

28. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, a Text Notice may be sent if this method of providing notice is approved by the Court. It is my understanding from Counsel for the parties that telephone numbers may be available for some persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet, making individual notice by text feasible for those individuals. If approved, the Text Notice will include a link to the Settlement Website. By clicking the link, recipients will be able to access additional information about the case.

Settlement Website

29. Epiq will create and maintain a dedicated Settlement Website with an easy to remember domain name. Relevant documents, including the Settlement Agreement, Notice, Claim Form, Preliminary Approval Order, and other case-related documents will be posted on the Settlement Website. The Settlement Website will also provide the ability for Settlement Class Members to file an online Claim Form. In addition, the Settlement Website will include relevant dates, answers to frequently asked questions ("FAQs"), instructions for how Settlement Class Members may opt-out (request exclusion) from or object to the Settlement, contact information for the Settlement Administrator, and how to obtain other case-related information. The Settlement Website address will be prominently displayed in all notice documents.

Toll-Free Telephone Number and Other Contact Information

30. A toll-free telephone number will be established for the Settlement. Callers will be able to hear an introductory message, have the option to learn more about the Settlement in the form of recorded answers to FAQs, and request that a printed Notice be mailed to them. This automated phone system will be available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. During normal business hours, callers will also have the option to speak to a live operator. The toll-free telephone number will be prominently displayed in all notice documents.

31. A postal mailing address will be established to allow Settlement Class Members the opportunity to request additional information or ask questions.

Claim Submission & Distribution Options

32. The Settlement provides Settlement Class Members the option of filing a Claim Form. The proposed Notices contain a detailed summary of the relevant information about the Settlement, including the Settlement Website address and how Settlement Class Members can file a Claim Form online or by mail or email. With any method of filing a Claim Form, Settlement Class Members will be given the option of receiving a digital payment or a traditional paper check.

Reminder Notice

33. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, at the election of Settlement Class Counsel, Epiq may be directed to send Reminder Notices. If implemented, the Reminder Notices will be sent after the individual notice efforts described above are complete, and prior to the claim filing deadline. The Reminder Notices will be sent to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated valid email address or via USPS first class mail to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated physical address who have not yet filed a Claim Form or requested exclusion from the Settlement. If approved by the Court, a Reminder Notice will be sent via text message to all persons on the Settlement Class Spreadsheet with an associated valid telephone number and who have not yet filed a Claim Form or requested exclusion from the Settlement. The Reminder Notices will include a link directly to the Settlement Website and/or provide the Settlement Website address.

Cost of Notice Implementation and Settlement Administration

34. Based on reasonable assumptions, the cost to implement the Notice Program and provide settlement administration is estimated to be between $110,000 and $135,000 (this is not a minimum or a cap). This approximate cost includes email and/or mailed notice (including postage), undeliverable mail processing and address research, website and toll-free telephone support, claims processing, distributions, and associated project management. Final total costs are dependent upon variables such as the amount of time needed to prepare the Class Member Database for mailing, number of telephone calls to the telephone toll-free line, number of notices sent, number of undeliverable notices received, whether reminder noticing is sent, etc. All costs are subject to the Service Contract under which Epiq will be retained as a Settlement Administrator, and the terms and conditions of that agreement.

CONCLUSION

35. In class action notice planning, execution, and analysis, we are guided by due process considerations under the United States Constitution, by federal and local rules and statutes, and further by case law pertaining to notice. This framework directs that the notice plan be designed to reach the greatest practicable number of potential class members and, in a settlement class action notice situation such as this, that the notice or notice plan itself not limit knowledge of the availability of benefits—nor the ability to exercise other options—to class members in any way. All of these requirements will be met in this case.

36. The Notice Program includes individual notice to persons who are likely to be Settlement Class Members. I reasonably expect the proposed Notice Program will reach at least 90% of the potential Settlement Classes with individual notice. The reach will be further enhanced by a Settlement Website, which is not included in the estimated reach calculation. In 2010, the Federal Judicial Center ("FJC") issued a Judges' Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, which is illustrative for class actions in state court, states that, "the lynchpin in an objective determination of the adequacy of a proposed notice effort is whether all the notice efforts together will reach a high percentage of the class. It is reasonable to reach between 70–95%."[4] Here, we have developed a Notice Program that will readily achieve a reach at the high-end of that standard.

37. The Notice Program follows the guidance for satisfying due process obligations that a notice expert gleans from the United States Supreme Court's seminal decisions, which emphasize the need: (a) to endeavor to actually inform the Settlement Class, and (b) to ensure that notice is reasonably calculated to do so:

a) "[W]hen notice is a person's due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it," Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust, 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950); and

b) "[N]otice must be reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections," Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156 (1974) (citing Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314).

38. The Notice Program for this case will provide the best notice practicable under the circumstances, conforms to all aspects of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 regarding notice, comports with the guidance for effective notice articulated in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth, and satisfies the requirements of due process, including its "desire to actually inform" requirement.

39. The Notice Program schedule will afford sufficient time to provide full and proper notice to Settlement Class Members before the opt-out and objection deadlines.

40. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed March 26, 2024.

Epiq made two additional attempts to deliver the email notice .... As of Mach 1, 2021, a total of 495,006 email notices were delivered, and 32,499 remained undeliverable .... In light of these facts, the Court finds that the parties have sufficiently provided the best practicable notice to the Class Members.

Judge Henry Edward Autrey, Pearlstone v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (Apr. 22, 2021) 4:17-cv-02856 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that adequate notice was given to all Settlement Class Members pursuant to the terms of the Parties' Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court has further determined that the Notice Plan fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members of all material elements of the Settlement, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule 23(c)(2) and 23(e)(1), applicable law, and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

Judge Lucy H. Koh, Grace v. Apple, Inc. (Mar. 31, 2021) 17-cv-00551 (N.D. Cal.):

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) requires that the settling parties provide class members with "the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice must clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3)." The Court finds that the Notice Plan, which was direct notice sent to 99.8% of the Settlement Class via email and U.S. Mail, has been implemented in compliance with this Court's Order (ECF No. 426) and complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge Gary A. Fenner, In re: Pre-Filled Propane Tank Antitrust Litigation (Mar. 30, 2021) MDL No. 2567, 14-cv-02567 (W.D. Mo.):

Based upon the Declaration of Cameron Azari, on behalf of Epiq, the Administrator appointed by the Court, the Court finds that the Notice Program has been properly implemented. That Declaration shows that there have been no requests for exclusion from the Settlement, and no objections to the Settlement. Finally, the Declaration reflects that AmeriGas has given appropriate notice of this settlement to the Attorney General of the United States and the appropriate State officials under the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and no objections have been received from any of them.

Judge Richard Seeborg, Bautista v. Valero Marketing and Supply Company (Mar. 17, 2021) 3:15-cv-05557 (N.D. Cal.):

The Notice given to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Notice Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances of these proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement, to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process.

Judge James D. Peterson, Fox et al. v. Iowa Health System d.b.a. UnityPoint Health (Mar. 4, 2021) 18-cv-00327 (W.D. Wis.):

The approved Notice plan provided for direct mail notice to all class members at their last known address according to UnityPoint's records, as updated by the administrator through the U.S. Postal Service. For postcards returned undeliverable, the administrator tried to find updated addresses for those class members. The administrator maintained the Settlement website and made Spanish versions of the Long Form Notice and Claim Form available upon request. The administrator also maintained a toll-free telephone line which provides class members detailed information about the settlement and allows individuals to request a claim form be mailed to them.

The Court finds that this Notice (i) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class members of the Settlement, the effect of the Settlement (including the release therein), and their right to object to the terms of the settlement and appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (iii) constituted due and sufficient notice of the Settlement to all reasonably identifiable persons entitled to receive such notice; (iv) satisfied the requirements of due process, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(1) and the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and all applicable laws and rules.

Code § 1781, and all due process rights under the U.S. Constitution and California Constitutions.*

(citation omitted). Epiq also created and maintained a settlement website and a toll-free hotline that Class Members could call if they had questions about the settlement. Id.*

Notice was also provided in non-measured trade, business and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The combined measurable paid print, television, radio, and Internet effort reached an estimated 95% of adults aged 18+ in the Gulf Coast region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States aged 18+ an average of 4 times each. (Id. ¶¶ 8, 10.) All notice documents were designed to be clear, substantive, and informative. (Id. ¶ 5.)

The Court received no objections to the scope or content of the [Medical Benefits] Notice Program. (Azari Supp. Decl. ¶ 12.) The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan as implemented satisfied the best notice practicable standard of Rule 23(c) and, in accordance with Rule 23(e)(1), provided notice in a reasonable manner to Class Members who would be bound by the Settlement, including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Likewise, the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of Due Process. The Court also finds the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of CAFA.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re: Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Economic and Property Damages Settlement) (Dec. 21, 2012) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice and Class Notice Plan satisfied and continue to satisfy the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(b) and 23(e), the Class Action Fairness Act (28 U.S.C. § 1711 et seq.), and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution (U.S. Const., amend. V), constituting the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances of this litigation. The notice program surpassed the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA. Based on the factual elements of the Notice Program as detailed below, the Notice Program surpassed all of the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA.

The Notice Program, as duly implemented, surpasses other notice programs that Hilsoft Notifications has designed and executed with court approval. The Notice Program included notification to known or potential Class Members via postal mail and e-mail; an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, and Sunday local newspapers. Notice placements also appeared in non-measured trade, business, and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The Notice Program met the objective of reaching the greatest possible number of class members and providing them with every reasonable opportunity to understand their legal rights. See Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 15, 68. The Notice Program was substantially completed on July 15, 2012, allowing class members adequate time to make decisions before the opt-out and objections deadlines.

The media notice effort alone reached an estimated 95% of adults in the Gulf region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States an average of 4 times each. These figures do not include notice efforts that cannot be measured, such as advertisements in trade publications and sponsored search engine listings. The Notice Program fairly and adequately covered and notified the class without excluding any demographic group or geographic area, and it exceeded the reach percentage achieved in most other court-approved notice programs.

Judge Alonzo Harris, Opelousas General Hospital Authority, A Public Trust, D/B/A Opelousas General Health System and Arklamiss Surgery Center, L.L.C. v. FairPay Solutions, Inc. (Aug. 17, 2012) 12-C-1599 (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

> Notice given to Class Members and all other interested parties pursuant to this Court's order of April 18, 2012, was reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Class as Defined for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members rights to be represented by private counsel, at their own costs, and Class Members rights to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford persons or entities within the Class Definition an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Class. Such notice complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the Due Process Clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as Defined.

Judge James Lawrence King, Sachar v. Iberiabank Corporation (Apr. 26, 2012) as part of In re: Checking Account Overdraft MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla):

> The Court finds that the Notice previously approved was fully and properly effectuated and was sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process because it described "the substantive claims … [and] contained information reasonably necessary to [allow Settlement Class Members to] make a decision to remain a class member and be bound by the final judgment."…. The Notice, among other things, defined the Settlement Class, described the release as well as the amount and method and manner of proposed distribution of the Settlement proceeds, and informed Settlement Class Members of their rights to opt-out or object, the procedures for doing so, and the time and place of the Final Approval Hearing. The Notice also informed Settlement Class Members that a class judgment would bind them unless they opted out, and told them where they could obtain more information, such as access to a full copy of the Agreement. Further, the Notice described in summary form the fact that Class Counsel would be seeking attorneys' fees of up to 30 percent of the Settlement. Settlement Class Members were provided with the best practicable notice "reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise them of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314. The content of the Notice fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23.

Judge Bobby Peters, Vereen v. Lowe's Home Centers (Apr. 13, 2012) SU10-cv-2267B (Ga. Super. Ct.):

> The Court finds that the Notice and the Notice Plan was fulfilled, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Amendment, and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order and that this Notice and Notice Plan constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of this action, constituted due and sufficient Notice of the proposed Settlement to all persons entitled to participate in the proposed Settlement, and was in full compliance with Ga. Code Ann § 9-11-23 and the constitutional requirements of due process. Extensive notice was provided to the class, including point of sale notification, publication notice and notice by first-class mail for certain potential Class Members.
>
> The affidavit of the notice expert conclusively supports this Court's finding that the notice program was adequate, appropriate, and comported with Georgia Code Ann. § 9-11-23(b)(2), the Due Process Clause of the Constitution, and the guidance for effective notice articulate in the FJC's Manual for Complex Litigation, 4th.

Judge Lee Rosenthal, In re: Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Mar. 2, 2012) MDL No. 2046 (S.D. Tex.):

> *The notice that has been given clearly complies with Rule 23(e)(1)'s reasonableness requirement … Hilsoft Notifications analyzed the notice plan after its implementation and conservatively estimated that notice reached 81.4 percent of the class members. (Docket Entry No. 106, ¶ 32). Both the summary notice and the detailed notice provided the information reasonably necessary for the presumptive class members to determine whether to object to the proposed settlement. See Katrina Canal Breaches, 628 F.3d at 197. Both the summary notice and the detailed notice "were written in easy-to-understand plain English." In re: Black Farmers Discrimination Litig., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2011 WL 5117058, at 23 (D.D.C. 2011); accord AGGREGATE LITIGATION § 3.04(c).15 The notice provided "satisf[ies] the broad reasonableness standards imposed by due process" and Rule 23. Katrina Canal Breaches, 628 F.3d at 197.

Judge John D. Bates, Trombley v. National City Bank (Dec. 1, 2011) 1:10-cv-00232 (D.D.C.) as part of In re: Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

> The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were in full compliance with the Court's January 11, 2011 Order, the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), and due process. The notice was adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In addition, adequate notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to participate in the final fairness hearing were provided to the Settlement Class.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., Schulte v. Fifth Third Bank (July 29, 2011) 1:09-cv-06655 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court has reviewed the content of all of the various notices, as well as the manner in which Notice was disseminated, and concludes that the Notice given to the Class fully complied with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, as it was the best notice practicable, satisfied all constitutional due process concerns, and provided the Court with jurisdiction over the absent Class Members.

Judge Ellis J. Daigle, Williams v. Hammerman & Gainer Inc. (June 30, 2011) 11-C-3187-B (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notices given to Settlement Class members and all other interested parties throughout this proceeding with respect to the certification of the Settlement Class, the proposed settlement, and all related procedures and hearings—including, without limitation, the notice to putative Settlement Class members and others … were reasonably calculated under all the circumstances and have been sufficient, as to form, content, and manner of dissemination, to apprise interested parties and members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Settlement Class, the Settlement Agreement and its contents, Settlement Class members' right to be represented by private counsel, at their own cost, and Settlement Class members' right to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford Settlement Class members an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class. Such notices complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the due process clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedures, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class.

Judge Stefan R. Underhill, Mathena v. Webster Bank, N.A. (Mar. 24, 2011) 3:10-cv-01448 (D. Conn.) as part of In re: Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judge Ted Stewart, Miller v. Basic Research, LLC (Sept. 2, 2010) 2:07-cv-00871 (D. Utah):

Plaintiffs state that they have hired a firm specializing in designing and implementing large scale, unbiased, legal notification plans. Plaintiffs represent to the Court that such notice will include: 1) individual notice by electronic mail and/or first-class mail sent to all reasonably identifiable Class members; 2) nationwide paid media notice through a combination of print publications, including newspapers, consumer magazines, newspaper supplements and the Internet; 3) a neutral, Court-approved, informational press release; 4) a neutral, Court-approved Internet website; and 5) a toll-free telephone number. Similar mixed media plans have been approved by other district courts post class certification. The Court finds this plan is sufficient to meet the notice requirement.

Judge Sara Loi, Pavlov v. Continental Casualty Co. (Oct. 7, 2009) 5:07-cv-02580 (N.D. Ohio):

[T]he elaborate notice program contained in the Settlement Agreement provides for notice through a variety of means, including direct mail to each class member, notice to the United States Attorney General and each State, a toll free number, and a website designed to provide information about the settlement and instructions on submitting claims. With a 99.9% effective rate, the Court finds that the notice program constituted the "best notice that is practicable under the circumstances," Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), and clearly satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge James Robertson, In re: Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litigation (Sept. 23, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.D.C.):

The Notice Plan, as implemented, satisfied the requirements of due process and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Plan was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the Settlement, and their right to appear, object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement. Further, the notice was reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

MARY LOUIS AND MONICA DOUGLAS, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, and COMMUNITY ACTION AGENCY OF SOMERVILLE, INC.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

SAFERENT SOLUTIONS, LLC, and METROPOLITAN MANAGEMENT GROUP, LLC,

Defendants.

Civil Case No. 1:22-cv-10800-AK

JOINT STATUS REPORT

In connection with this Court's Order of February 21, 2024 (Doc. No. 108) and the Parties' Joint Status Report of March 1, 2024 (Doc. No. 111), Plaintiff Mary Louis and Defendant Metropolitan Management Group, LLC submit this report regarding the status of settlement.

1. All parties in this case engaged in a mediation session on November 6, 2023, and with the aid of the Hon. Judge Welsh (Ret.), made progress toward reaching a settlement of this case.

2. Plaintiffs and Defendant SafeRent Solutions have reached a settlement to resolve the claims by Plaintiffs against Defendant SafeRent Solutions. On March 28, 2024, Plaintiffs filed their Unopposed Motion to Certify the Classes for Settlement Purposes and Direct Notice of Settlement to the Classes ("Preliminary Approval Motion"), and corresponding filings. Doc Nos. 113, 114. The final, signed Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Preliminary Approval Motion.

3. Plaintiff Community Action Agency of Somerville ("CAAS") has also reached a separate settlement agreement to resolve the individual claims of CAAS against Defendant SafeRent Solutions. CAAS filed a Notice of Settlement on March 28, 2024. Doc. No. 117.

4. Plaintiff Mary Louis and Defendant Metropolitan are continuing to engage in settlement discussions regarding the individual claims of Plaintiff Louis against Defendant Metropolitan. As stated in their March 1 report, the Parties initially agreed to submit this updated report to the Court by March 15, 2024. Following the March 1 report, the Parties met and conferred about settlement on March 6, when Plaintiffs' counsel offered an updated proposal. Plaintiffs' counsel attempted to follow up with counsel for Metropolitan thereafter through email, but received no response until March 28. The Parties apologize to the Court for failing to provide a further update by the March 15 deadline and intend to continue settlement discussions and provide prompt updates to the Court in the future.

5. Plaintiff Louis and Defendant Metropolitan have agreed to submit a further status report by April 12, 2024, that either updates the Court on the status of these parties' settlement discussions or that proposes a schedule consistent with the dates provided at the Court's September 13, 2023 status conference.

If the Court believes a further order is necessary at this time, the Parties respectfully request that the Court enter an order directing Plaintiff Mary Louis and Defendant Metropolitan to submit a further status report by April 12, 2024, that either updates the Court on the status of the these parties' settlement discussions or that proposes a schedule consistent with the dates provided at the Court's September 13, 2023 status conference.
